RICHMOND JUBILEE

"Lachlan Valley Railway's steam trains are back for Richmond Jubilee 2015! These original heritage engines, lovingly restored, made their grand debut in Richmond last year and were welcomed by thousands of passengers riding the shuttles across the entire weekend from Richmond to Mulgrave and back.

This year, Richmond Jubilee is being held on the weekend of 19th and 20th September. We recommend booking your tickets online as seats were sold out last year. As well as the magnificent steam trains, Richmond Park will be in full Springtime mode, with lots of stalls, free kids activities including storytelling by our own Claire Bailey in period costume, old fashioned games and a Hunt & Seek competition around Richmond for kids aged up to 12.

For more information, visit www.richmondjubilee.com.au or find Richmond Jubilee on Facebook."

Quarter of Australians expected to suffer from hearing loss by 2050, find out how old your hearing is today

With one in six Australians hard of hearing¹, National Hearing Care and Terry White Chemists have joined forces to offer FREE hearing screenings in a campaign to increase early detection and improve community health outcomes.

Hearing loss is estimated to be the second most prevalent health condition in Australia after vision impairment, with over 3.6 million Australians estimated to be currently living with a hearing loss.

North Western Sydney residents are encouraged to take action regarding their hearing health and participate in a free hearing screening conducted by consultants from National Hearing Care at Terry White Chemists nationally, to check if your hearing age corresponds with your chronological age.

National Hearing Care senior audiologist, Jacy Fellows, said researchers have compared average hearing ability and age, "The concept of hearing age is very relatable – people of all ages are exposed to risk factors that can affect their hearing – some more than others."

People with untreated hearing loss are often faced with serious consequences, ranging from disadvantages at work, relationship problems and social isolation, which in some cases can lead to depression.

Apart from the massive direct health system cost to Australian taxpayers, indirect health costs include work absenteeism, lost productivity in the workplace and the additional need for changes to Australian infrastructure to accommodate those who are hearing impaired.

Terry White Chemists Chief Executive Officer Anthony White said the opportunity to partner with National Hearing Care demonstrated the group's commitment to improving access to vital community health services.

With more than 160 Terry White Chemists located throughout Australia, it's now easier than ever to find out the estimated age of your hearing from a National Hearing Care consultant.

Free hearing checks are available at Terry White Chemists in Schofields, Stanhope Gardens and Winston Hills on selected days throughout August and September. For more information or to book a screening visit: www.terrywhitechemists.com.au

Please note that appointments are for adults over the age of 26. Anyone under the age of 26 should contact their local National Hearing Care clinic to discuss their options.

If you are scared of the Dentist or just looking for a friendly Dentist you might want to read this.

For a majority of people a trip to the Dentist is a thing to fear. Some people say it is from the treatment they had as a child, others the fear of the 'N' word (needle) or the sounds and smells.

Scared? Well you shouldn't be, after all we are deep into the 21st century and these issues are far into the past.

Glenhaven Dental has been established by Dr David Ager and has all the latest techniques and technology to reduce or even eliminate these fears whilst giving the best treatment in a comforting environment.

"Dentistry has come such a long way in the past 20 years. Some things have stayed the same and yet technology has advanced so much that the issues that scared people have either been removed or changed to no longer cause people anxiety." explains Dr David Ager.

After spending years in Penrith Dr David Ager decided he wanted to build a small and relaxing dental facility close to home. Through a little bit of good fortune he found it in Glenhaven, right across the road from Flower Power. His new site is a lovely large clinic with a beautiful view over the front gardens of 432 Old Northern Rd.

What does Dr Dave actually do? "I have many years of working with people of all ages, from children all the way to one client who is 101 years old, managing all their dental needs from check-ups, fillings etc. including my passion for orthodontics and braces." Clients? Why do you call them clients? "Well as much as it is a surgery and I am a Dental surgeon, I treat the needs of people by starting with the simplest of questions 'how can we help you today?'

So to fix your Dental problems Dr Dave and his team might have the answers.

Golden Wedding Anniversary for William & Sylvia Shoebridge on 11th September 2015

William & Sylvia were married at St Paul's Church of England at Burwood on the 11th September 1965.

After their honeymoon they built their home at Baulkham Hills where they still live today.

"Moving to the sticks" was the comments at the time as Baulkham Hills was just a newly developed area with dairy & vegetable farms still existing.

William & Sylvia met each other at a popular Sydney Dance Hall, "Vic's Cabaret" in Strathfield. William being a very smooth dancer whisked Sylvia off her feet while enjoying the music of the time Bill Haley & the Comets.

William worked long hours as an Electrician supporting his growing family of four daughters, Tracie, Kim, Julie & Veronica while Sylvia was kept busy at home raising the girls.

Now retired William & Sylvia enjoy time together taking day trips away and spending time with their eleven grandchildren ranging from 17 - 1 years old.

The youngest will be celebrating her 1st birthday on the same day.

They'll celebrate this special occasion with all their family at Eastwood with a beautiful luncheon.

DOES YOUR SUBURB HONOUR A REAL PERSON?

by Trevor Patrick

John Thorn was born in Parramatta in 1794 and baptised in St John's on 10th February, son of Humphrey and Rebecca Thorn. He married Jane Matilda Humm in 1815 in St John's Church of England. He was appointed chief Constable of Parramatta in 1821, a juror in 1826 and bailiff for Parramatta in 1829.

John led a patrol in 1830 searching for bushrangers who came out of the rugged North Rocks area to attack travellers using the road linking Parramatta and Windsor. Two men fired muskets at the patrol, one ball passing through John's hat. John returned fire and shot John Macnamara who had a price on his head. The other bushranger fired, missed and fled into the bush. John Thorn pursued the man and captured him. The prisoner was William Dalton, later tried for highway robbery.

Lieutenant-General Ralph Darling, governor of New South Wales, rewarded John Thorn with a land grant of one square mile (640 acres) which became known as 'Thorn's Farm'.

The suburb of THORNLEIGH commemorates the man

There are dozens of fascinating stories about the people and places along the Pennant Hills range which stretches from the northern shore of the Parramatta River at Rydalmere and Melrose Park, through Brush Farm, Mobbs Hill, Carlingford, Beecroft, West Pennant Hills, Thornleigh and Hornsby.

In Search of the Pennant Hills book takes you on a journey of discovery on every page and is richly illustrated with historic pictures and maps, fully referenced for any future investigation in Australian archives. The 208 page book is available for purchase direct from the author. Email: trevorp04@gmail.com. Visit www.hillstory.com.au where you may view many stories of yesteryear.

Send your book order to: TREVOR PATRICK, Post Office Box 176, Kenthurst NSW 2156. Copies only $60, post paid throughout Australia.

Gruen S7 - Episode 1
Wednesday September 9 - 8:30pm
Series Premiere

#ourABC

The Rose d'Or winning series returns for its 12th incarnation: Gruen.

Back when we debuted in 2008, Blockbuster and Borders were flourishing and Australia still manufactured cars. Needless to say, stuff has changed.

We're still the show that analyses what most other shows are there to sell: advertising. But we're also the show that knows you can't click on a link without surrendering all your personal data to a corporation trying to sell you shampoo. Gruen will run an X-Ray over advertising, spin, branding, positioning and image control, wherever they are found.

The selling of ideas and products will always amuse, bewilder, and irrationally annoys us – but now it's more sophisticated, targeted and occasionally downright creepy. Mostly it just understands you better, so we're here to provide you with the tools to understand it.

Wil Anderson will continue as host, and Australia's favourite advertising execs - Todd Sampson and Russell Howcroft will remain. But we will be seeking other new panelists from spin doctors and marketing gurus both in Australia and visiting.

Zapruder's have delivered The Gruen Transfer and Gruen Nation, which broke the mould and enjoyed the dedication of a wide audience that's thirsty for that creative edge and great entertainment.

Each week we will be dissecting the spin of a topical story that has made headlines either in Australia or overseas. Classic segments will return, such as 'The Pitch', where some of Australia's most creative agencies attempt to complete an impossible brief.

9/11: The Lost Hero
Wednesday September 9 - 9:25pm

The incredible untold story of 28-year-old Jason Thomas, a black former US Marine, who risked his life on 9/11 to find and help rescue the last two men dug out of the wreckage of the World Trade Center. With this miraculous mission achieved, this humble and heroic man quietly walked away from Ground Zero and got on with his life. He would only reappear five years later when an award winning Hollywood movie - World Trade Center, directed by Oliver Stone- retold the story of the dramatic rescue but got one crucial fact wrong. Jason - an Afro Caribbean- was cast as a white man. This is the extraordinary true story of Jason Thomas- the lost hero of 9/11.

The film is based on the intimate first person testimonies of some of the key people involved in the extraordinary night-time rescue. Most have never fully told their stories before. Jason Thomas tells his story in full for the first time. He reveals what motivated him to risk everything on the night of 9/11 to venture out onto the rubble pile, how he heard the cries for help deep underneath in a chasm, what he did in the rescue effort, why he disappeared wanting no recognition for what he had done and why he came forward after he saw the Hollywood movie.

Will Jimeno speaks about what it was like to be buried alive after the twin towers fell on top of him, his unbelievable relief when Jason answered his calls and how he feels a lifelong debt to him for helping to save his life.

Other key players like emergency police rescue officer Scott Strauss tell their dramatic and emotional stories of the rescue and how they were supported by Jason. We learn through Jason's wife and his aunt that he had always been a gentle giant dedicated to helping others. He grew up in poverty in New York, one of a family of fifteen who had to stick together to survive. This ethic of brotherly love was strengthened after Jason became a Marine when he was taught to always go back to help try to save others who were injured or dying. The film culminates in a reunion between Jason and Will Jimeno whose life he saved- and his ever grateful family.

The Sugar Conspiracy
Sunday, 6 September - 8.45pm
Premiere

This compelling investigative documentary exposes the US sugar industry's systematic hijacking of scientific study to bury evidence that sugar is, in fact, toxic.

For forty years, Big Sugar deflected threats to its multi-billion dollar empire through creative PR and tactics strikingly similar to the way the tobacco industry disguised the fact that its products are addictive and cause fatal illnesses. As obesity rates skyrocket and doctors treat the first generation of children suffering from fatty liver disease, the sugar industry has come under increasing scrutiny from emerging scientific and medical studies. While the industry steps up its advertising spin and lobbying efforts, this film warns that we are sitting on a dietary time bomb.

AUSSIES NEW CLEAN AIR VAC

Australian Pump Industries, leaders in the field of high pressure water blasters and industrial vacuum cleaners, have launched a whole new range of wet/dry vacs produced by one of Europe's leading manufacturers.

The vacuum cleaners, marketed under the brand name "Aussie Clean Air" all feature a unique Microweb 99.9% filter that makes them ideal for industrial applications including feed powders, sugar, grain and fertiliser dust!

The vacs are loaded with features but the Microweb filter is of huge benefit to industrial users. Its unique homopolymer construction uses a revolutionary acrylic fibre. It has a microporous membrane applied to the collection surface that provides a kind of "Teflon" finish. This provides a low pressure drop and causes the dust to "cake". That caking facilitates better dust release, improves collection efficiency and results in huge time savings over the life of the machine.

"The caking system releases the dust with a shake of the filter. No scrubbing or beating is required" said Aussie Pumps' Bruce Hulm.

The Microweb is essential for vacuuming dust from limestone, bio chemical, lead, sugar, cement, precious metals, pigments and fertilisers!

The new Aussie Clean Air machines are robust with rugged polypropylene barrels that are impact resistant. The vacs come with barrel sizes of up to 75 litre capacity and up to 3 powerful 1200 watt motors. That provides real capacity with the big machines pulling 181 L/sec airflow and a water lift of 2600mm!

"Many of Europe's major manufacturers of vacs use cheap third world motors. Our formula for design calls for only top quality European motors that can be warranted for an extended period," said Hulm. "They cost more but we are not out to protect the bottom line but rather to provide a better machine, better cleaning results and lower through life operating costs," he said.

The Aussie Clean Air vacs are supported with a unique five year warranty against faulty material or workmanship.

The 75 litre vac comes with heavy duty professional 40mm accessory tool kit. A bigger version, the Jumbo wet/dry vac, comes with 50mm and 90mm accessory kits enabling it to pick-up objects as large as coke cans. This version comes with a 1 metre suction tube with poly suction spout.

Further information on the Aussie Clean Air wet/dry vacuum cleaners is available from Aussie Pump distributors nationwide or online at aussiepumps.com.au.

The new industrial range of wet/dry vacs from Aussie Pumps feature 99.9% filtration, poly barrels and a unique five year warranty.

your Garden

Making Marmalade

by Laura Rittenhouse,
www.laurarittenhouse.com

Gardening isn't only about pruning and weeding (though sometimes it feels like it), occasionally you also get a harvest. Recently, members of our garden club reaped a bounty of citrus and shared their surplus which meant I suddenly had my own bounty. So, what do you do with citrus when you can't look at another glass of juice or bowl of fruit salad? Make marmalade of course. Here's the simple (though not quick - homemade marmalade is not fast food!) method I use with any combination of citrus. It produces sweet but tangy marmalade which is soft but still has a bit of texture.

- 1) Wash & cut fruit into thin slices. Leave in the pips (they contain pectin for thickening). A good batch size is 4 cups.
- 2) Cover fruit in water and let stand overnight.
- 3) Put fruit with water into a pot, boil on low for 1 hour to soften peels. Let stand several hours.

- 4) Add sugar (3 cups for 4 cups of fruit) bring to low boil. Simmer for about 1 hour without lid until a dollop placed on a cold plate begins to gel. Remove pips during this stage.

- 5) Fill into sterilised jars. Set filled jars on rack in pot of water, boil for 15 minutes to seal and sterilise.

Once cool, the marmalade is ready to be eaten, stored or given away. That's one of the best things about gardening, having something to share with friends!

Our next meeting is October 1st when Betty will tell us about her trip to Keukenhof Gardens in the Netherlands to see the tulips.

If you're interested in gardening, join us at the Macquarie Towns Garden Club. We meet at 2:00 p.m. on the first Thursday of each month at the Windsor Library. Check us out at: www.macquarietownsgardenclub.wordpress.com. If you have suggestions or feedback for me, send it c/o: contribute@hillstohawkesbury.com.au.

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by David Elliott, Member for Baulkham Hills

CHRISTMAS CARD COMPETITION NOW OPEN

I am offering a $100 Toys"R"Us voucher as the prize for my Annual Christmas Card Competition.

Christmas always brings an air of excitement, and this is a great way to extend the excitement of the season just a little more.

All entries will be on display in my office after the winner had been selected.

It will be a wonderful opportunity for the artistic abilities of our local students to be on display for all our community to see.

I am very much looking forward to seeing the wonderful colour and creativity our students can produce for the festive season.

The theme for the competition will be "St Nicholas".

The competition is open to Primary Schools within the Baulkham Hills electorate, including:

- * Baulkham Hills North Public
- * North Rocks Public
- * Christ The King Primary School
- * Our Lady Of Lourdes Baulkham Hills South
- * Crestwood Public* St Gabriel's School
- * Excelsior Public
- * St Michaels Baulkham Hills
- * Jasper Road Public
- * West Pennant Hills Public School
- * Kellyville Public School
- * Matthew Pearce Public
- * Murray Farm Public School

Entries are now open and will close Friday 23rd October.

The winner will be chosen by my wife, Nicole, and the winning design, to be printed on my official Parliamentary Christmas Cards, will include the student's name and school.

The winning student will be presented with their prize by Mr Elliott and Mrs Elliott in November, depending on school availability for an assembly.

Please send entries by post to Suite 1, 25-33 Old Northern Road, Baulkham Hills 2153.

GRANTS AVAILABLE FOR LOCAL SPORT AND RECREATION PROJECTS

Local organisations can now apply for grants of up to $1 million to help upgrade sport and recreation facilities through the ClubGRANTS Category 3 program.

There's up to $8 million available and I encourage our local clubs and councils to get their applications together to have the best chance of receiving a funding injection.

On top of funding for sport and recreation infrastructure, $2 million for emergency relief facilities and $2.5 million for cultural infrastructure is available annually for the next four years.

Expressions of interest for sport and recreation grants are now open until October 2015. Applications will be assessed by the independent ClubGRANTS Fund committee made up of representatives from Sport NSW, Clubs NSW, Office of Liquor, Gaming and Racing, Arts NSW, Office of Regional Development and sporting associations.

Approved applicants will be invited to lodge formal applications by 16 December 2015 and successful projects will be announced early next year.

Further information and applicant information packs are available on the Office of Liquor, Gaming & Racing website (www.olgr.nsw.gov.au).

POLICE SATURATE ROADS TO TACKLE RISING TOLL

NSW Police will be out in force across NSW as part of Operation Saturation which is aimed at tackling the recent spike in the NSW road toll.

With 229 people killed on our roads so far this year, which is 25 more than the same time last year, the NSW Government and the NSW Police Force are pleading with road users to be more cautious.

Too many lives have been lost because of dangerous behaviour such as speeding, drink driving, not wearing seatbelts and talking on mobile phones.

Operation Saturation is designed to make road users sit up and take note of their behaviour and be more cautious on the road.

The current statistics are concerning and are showing an upward trend. An average of 15 lives have been lost every fortnight on our roads since the end of April.

Police will be out in force until the end of September to target some of the biggest killers on our roads in areas where serious accidents are happening.

Operation Saturation – fully funded by the Community Road Safety Fund, which redirects speed camera fines back into the community to make our roads safer – has begun and will run until Monday September 28.

BAULKHAM HILLS SCHOOLS INVITED TO APPLY FOR BEFORE AND AFTER SCHOOL CARE FUNDING

Applications are now open for schools across Baulkham Hills to access funding to establish new out of school hour care (OSHC) services.

Primary schools from all sectors may apply for one-off grants of up to $20,000 to help with the cost of establishing these services in time for the start of the 2016 school year.

The grants can be used for fit-out costs, tendering or establishment costs, or to pay for necessary equipment to support the new OSHC service.

Schools are also being asked to consult with each other across local areas to determine ways of working together to match service delivery with actual demand.

Where there is a suitable site but limited demand for example, school communities need to consider how they can partner with other local schools – government and non-government – to make a service viable.

Applications are accessible from the NSW Department of Education, Catholic Education Commission NSW, and the Association of Independent Schools of NSW websites.

DCH ANIMAL ADOPTIONS

Hi I'm Daisy-May, an energetic lap dog, who loves attention as much as I love to run. I'm looking for a home with a backyard and an energetic owner who isn't afraid to take me for a run or an extra long walk. I'm asking for a backyard but I really also love to snuggle on the couch and bed. I was a companion dog for my elderly owner who unfortunately passed away 6 months ago and since then I've had a rough trot, but thanks to DCH I'm currently living it up in foster care whilst I wait to find my forever home. I am not good with cats at all and have not had a lot of socialising with other dogs and need an experienced person to teach me how to play with other dogs although I am getting better as I am taken on regular walks now. If you have any questions about me please don't hesitate to contact my foster mum for a chat. I am desexed, vaccinated, microchipped, flea and heartworm treated.

BUS TRANSPORT IN THE DISTRICT

What with all the developments taking place in the district and the second coming of the railway to the area my mind lately has turned to transport.

I say second coming of the railway, because once there was a railway line from Parramatta up into the Hills District, which closed on the 31st January 1932.

So let us go back in time and look at the transport of the area in the past. We can go back to the stage coach days when a coach service operated from Parramatta to Windsor passing through the Hills district, but such days would be before the memory of us all I'd dare to say.

My wife's late mother had fond memories of travelling by horse and dray to family picnics at Parramatta Park

The early European families of the area would generally have a horse and cart or trap or perhaps a number of horses to transport themselves and goods around. Storekeepers and farmers would transport fruit, vegetables, clothing and household goods in such a manner. Families would travel by horse or by buggy to friends and neighbours when visiting or going to church etc.

As the population grew and spread out, public transport became more of a necessity and soon there were a number of bus and coach operators setting up who saw a need that needed to be addressed and therefore aimed to profit from this. In the 1920s motorised bus companies expanded greatly. You can see that the Cumberland Argus reported that in 1916 there were on 16 mostly small owner operated buses in the area and by 1931 there were 612 buses operating. Anyone could set up a bus company, all that was required was a driving licence and a vehicle. There was no regulation regarding the awarding of routes. Competition was fierce and over time many of the bus companies were taken over or merged together. Centres of population and railheads became the destinations of choice for the bus operators. They could take rural residents to the townships such as Hornsby and Parramatta and take townsfolk out to rural destinations for country picnics etc.

In the 1920s through to the 1950s buses were a popular means of transport as many families could not afford to buy a car. Mum would catch a bus to town to do the shopping, teens would travel to the picture theatres or dances for entertainment and dad would go to the office or factory to work.

One bus operator, Ern Black, operated a bus run from Glenorie to Hornsby where he would often change the bus to other modes such as a dray which carted bricks from the brickyard at Normanhurst and carted fruit to Hornsby then reattaching the bus to carry passengers. George Deaman drove for Ern Black in 1920 and by 1923 George Deaman owned the horse coaches that he had acquired from Ern Black and also had bought a motorised coach and thus this was the start of what later evolved into the now respected Glenorie Bus Company which continued to serve the district for many more years to come. The bus depot for the Glenorie Bus Company was situated at George Deaman's parents home at Glenorie. George Deaman died in 1960 and his wife continued operating the business until early 1962 at which time Roy Baxter who operated a car hire company at Castle Hill bought the company and owned it for about 12 months. After a succession of various owners the company was acquired by the Todd family in July 1975 until 2001. During the period that the Todd family owned the Glenorie Bus Company they continued their expansion of the business by acquiring Dural Busways in 1988 which was located at Kenthurst.

In 2001 the Glenorie Bus Company became part of the Westbus group but retained the name of Glenorie Bus Company. The Westbus group were acquired by the joint venture operation of Comfort DelGro Cabcharge business in 2005 at around the same time the joint venture acquired additional routes and businesses including Baxter's Bus Lines and some of the Harris Park Transport bus routes. All the local businesses and routes were merged into the enlarged Westbus operation. The local bus routes in the Parramatta and Hills districts that formed part of Westbus were then placed into a separate operation named Hillsbus Pty. Ltd. This was also owned and continues to be owned by the joint venture company of Comfort DelGro Cabcharge. This is the reason that when you look at the rear destination board on many of the buses you see CDC showing which is for "Comfort DelGro Cabcharge". Hillsbus now includes all of the former Parramatta Bus Company routes, Harris Park Transport routes and Glenorie Bus Company routes. The company currently has depots at Northmead, Seven Hills and Dural. You will find Hillsbus buses throughout the circulation area of all of our publications.

Whilst this is my composition, the source of much of the information in this little story comes from the publication "Transport In The Hills" published by the Hills Historical Society. The book is available for purchase from the Society at PO Box 48, Castle Hill, NSW 2164. I wish to thank my very good friend of more than twenty years, Pam Trimmer who helped to compile the book.

Ozzie Bush Birds

Our local Australian music composer Rosalind Carlson from Arcadia has just released her latest exciting composition on CD. This is the "Ozzie Bush Birds" Op.29 for flute and piano.

The composer says that this music has been inspired by the many native birds living on her property. In this atmospheric work, the flute represents the birds, their flight movements, bird calls and song patterns. The piano represents the earth, trees, bush, scrub and the undergrowth found in the Australian bush.

Rosalind Carlson has dedicated her "Ozzie Bush Birds" to the brilliant flautist Julia Fekete-Berky who is playing with the award winning pianist Evgeny Ukhanov on this CD.

For those interested in this beautiful evocative musical work why not speak to the composer herself on -- Phone: (02) 9653 1066, visit www.rosalindcarlson.com, email: info@rosalindcarlson.com.
