Who will be the 2015 Hawkesbury Citizen and Young Citizen of the Year?

Two special awards, the Hawkesbury Citizen of the Year Award and Hawkesbury Young Citizen of the Year Award, will be announced on Australia Day at a special ceremony on Monday, 26 January at 11:30am at Richmond Club.

These two award winners are chosen from the Hawkesbury's four Citizens of the Season and four Young Citizens of the Season for 2014. All the Season Awards will also be proudly presented to the eight recipients at this ceremony.

The Citizen of the Year and Young Citizen of the Year Award recipients are nominated for the many contributions they make to improve the lives of people in the Hawkesbury community. These people have selflessly given their time and their energy to helping others, and it is fitting that they should be publicly recognised on Australia Day.

The winners of the 2014 Citizen/Young Citizen of the Season awards and nominees for the 2015 Citizen/Young Citizen of the Year are listed below.

Citizens of the Season:
Summer – Gerda Deryk, Autumn – Sonia Teuma, Winter – Linda Strickland, Spring – Dr Ravi Sahasrabudhe

Stepping On means better health in any language

After a great success with five falls prevention programs for the local community, Wesley Uniting Church, are looking forward to providing support for our Non-English speaking community, the Chinese community - in bringing a falls prevention program specifically in this language. All speakers will be able to speak the language, otherwise interpreters will be available, including materials provided in this language as well.

A Stepping On program will commence on Thursday 12 February commencing at 10am for two hours and will run for seven weeks. The location is Wesley Uniting Church, 32 Showground Road, Castle Hill. The program will run for seven weeks.

Stepping On is a community based program conducted in association with the Western Sydney Local Health District. The program covers many facets of falls prevention over the seven sessions. It aims to teach people about the seriousness and consequences of falls, how to improve their strength and balance, how to identify and modify hazards to reduce the risk of falling.

The program is available to anyone who is aged 65 or older, living in their own home and able to walk independently or with a stick. Ann Kumar said "if you are fearful of falling or recently involved in a fall, then this is the program for you. It is an essential underpinning to have a sense of control over managing the risk of falling. The program looks at improving confidence to maximise independence at home and in the community".

However, the program is not suitable for people with dementia or neuromuscular conditions. Each week's program runs for 2 hours and morning tea is provided. Importantly the program is free and open to all within the community.

Registration are essential and places are filled quickly. Please call number provided ASAP to register:

For more details, including a flyer about the program, please contact Christina Yang – 0424 609 896 (for registration in Chinese), Ann Kumar – 0401 805 797 (for registration in English), or the Wesley Church office on 9894 8999. Registrations need to be completed by 6 February.

Police are investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of a woman at Vineyard, in Sydney's west.

About 6pm last Monday 19 January 2015, emergency services were called to a caravan park on Commercial Road, after reports a woman had been found dead in her home.

Officers from Hawkesbury Local Area Command attended and a 57-year-old woman was found deceased in her bed.

A crime scene was established and remains in place while inquiries continue.

The cause of the woman's death is yet to be determined. A post-mortem will be conducted.

Police are appealing for anyone with information to come forward.

Police are urging anyone with information in relation to this incident to call Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000 or use the Crime Stoppers online reporting page: <https://nsw.crimestoppers.com.au/> Information you provide will be treated in the strictest of confidence. We remind people they should not report crime information via our Facebook and Twitter pages.

Police charge two more men over alleged drug supply operation - Gangs Squad

Two further men have been charged following ongoing investigations into an alleged large-scale drug manufacturing operation in Sydney.

Strike Force Warrenwood was established in 2013 by investigators from the State Crime Command's Gangs Squad and the NSW Crime Commission.

The strike force was formed to investigate the alleged manufacture and supply of methylamphetamine by members of the Lone Wolf outlaw motorcycle gang (OMCG).

In May 2014, two men – aged 30 and 32– were arrested and charged after a large clandestine drug laboratory was uncovered at a rented property in Cattai.

Following an exhaustive investigation, strike force detectives stopped a car at McGraths Hill on Tuesday 13 January 2015 and spoke with a 30-year-old man.

During a subsequent search of his car, detectives found 70 kilograms of pseudoephedrine.

The Bligh Park man was arrested and taken to Windsor Police Station where he was charged with supply prohibited drug (commercial quantity); manufacture prohibited drug; and knowingly deal with the proceeds of crime.

He appeared in court and was refused bail to reappear at Penrith Local Court on 23 January 2015.

Investigators subsequently executed a search warrant at a rented property on Old Northern Road at Maroota on Wednesday 14 January 2015.

Police located and seized more than 300 kilograms of iodine and 200 litres of chemicals allegedly used in the manufacture of methylamphetamine.

A 41-year-old man was arrested and taken to Windsor Police Station where he was charged with possess prohibited drug and manufacture prohibited drug.

The Sackville man appeared in Penrith Local Court yesterday where he was granted bail to reappear on 27 February 2015.

Investigations by Strike Force Warrenwood detectives continue and police expect further charges to be laid.

Man charged with supplying methylamphetamines (ICE) – Windsor

A second man has been charged following investigations into the supply of drugs around the Windsor area since July last year.

In July 2014, detectives from Hawkesbury Local Area Command formed Strike Force Feras to investigate the supply of methylamphetamines (ICE) in the Hawkesbury area.

At 11.45am on Monday 12 January 2015, following investigations, police attended a home on Church Street, Windsor where they arrested a 39-year-old man.

He was taken to Windsor Police Station where he was charged with aid and abet supply of drugs, and supply prohibited drug (x2). He has been refused bail to appear at Penrith Local Court.

His arrest is the second arrest by officers attached to Strike Force Feras after a 35-year-old woman was arrested on Wednesday 7 January over related matters.

Daylight Saving
By Nick Enright
Directed by Bernard Teuben

Highly successful couple, Felicity and Tom, live for their spectacular and demanding careers; his as a powerhouse tennis coach and hers as a feted Sydney restaurateur. Unfortunately their achievements are casting a pall over a once fruitful marriage.

Left to her own devices when work commitments send Tom to Los Angeles on their wedding anniversary, Felicity finds herself contemplating the life they have built together. As the clocks turn back for daylight saving, she receives a surprise phone call from Josh, her first ever love. Is infidelity on the cards? Will Felicity be tempted to ease her loneliness by Josh's persistent charms? Complicating matters is a neurotic tennis player with psychic problems, the arrival of Felicity's Prying mother and one highly stressed neighbour. Full of clever dialogue, astute observations and witty one-liners, Daylight Saving is one of Nick Enright's most beloved works, winning the 1990 Australian Writers' Guild and Best Stage Play Awards.

West Side Story May 2015!

Further auditions (males only) on Wednesday 28 January at 7.30 pm

Dural Musical Society is currently looking for young men to cast in West Side Story. All female roles are cast, but there are a number of male roles that still need to be filled. We are looking for guys who would like to play the part of a "gang member". In West Side Story two clashing New York City gangs face off against each other – the Jets led by Riff and the Puerto Rican Sharks, led by Bernardo.

While we do have a few key roles to fill, we mostly need the guys to cover the scenes where the gangs confront each other – on the street, at the local dance, at Doc's drugstore, and at the 'rumble' or street fight. Guys who feel that singing isn't their strong point won't have to worry – the Sharks gang do not need to sing, but can if they are singers. This show also provides an opportunity to experience theatre 'in the round' where we have the audience on three sides of the action – allowing the audience to be close to the passion, aggression, and energy of the performers.

This would be a good opportunity for someone keen to be in their first musical outside school, or for that matter, someone who has been involved in musicals for years.

For further information, please contact Eddie Bruce (Director) on 0412 865 203, or visit us on Facebook by searching for 'duralmusicalsoc'

Cows Escape To The Country!

It was a disaster when the five cows and two bulls of the First Fleet disappeared into the Australian bush in June 1788. The milk and fresh meat supplies for the new settlement were gone. In 1795 aborigines gave information to Governor Hunter that strange horned animals lived in the forest to the south of Parramatta. A fine herd of around sixty young and old cattle were proved to be the Cape of Good Hope breed which had escaped. By 1806 the herd was estimated to be around 3000. Governor Lachlan Macquarie named the area where the herd was discovered Cawdor to honour his wife Elizabeth whose connection to Scotland was the Clan Campbell of Cawdor. The original name of the area was part of the Cowpastures, named after the runaway herd of cattle.

In 1805 John Macarthur obtained a 5000 acre land grant from Governor King to establish a grazing property at the Cowpastures [Camden] where he built a small timber slab hut with a bark roof for shelter on a ridge above the flood plain of the Nepean River. In 1820 a more substantial cottage was built and stands today on Belgenny Farm, part of the Camden Park estate. The buildings on the property represent Australia's most complete authentic Georgian farm complex and is an educational centre operated by the State Government and the Friends of Belgenny.

You will be welcome to join Parramatta and District Historical Society which holds twice monthly history talks and conducts guided tours of historic Hambleton Cottage, Gregory Place, Parramatta. Open Thursday to Sunday 11am to 4pm. Group tours daily by appointment. Telephone 9635-6924. Email: parramattahist@tpg.com.au. Visit website: parramattahistorical.org.au

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by David Elliott, Member for Baulkham Hills

CONTAINER SCHEME A WIN FOR THE HILLS SHIRE

The decision by the NSW Government to introduce a Container Deposit Scheme (CDS) is a win for The Hills.

This decision will ensure local sporting fields were maintained properly, with financial incentives on offer for people to take their rubbish with them when they leave.

I, like many of you, am sick of having to spend every Sunday and Monday morning picking up plastic Coca-Cola, sports drinks and water bottles.

This decision will ensure that our sporting groups, families and others who use our recreational facilities will have a reason to pick up after themselves.

Independent advice states that a state-based scheme, using reverse vending machines and targeting containers that are predominantly consumed away-from-home, will be both cost efficient and effective.

Importantly, it will also complement, rather than compete with, our existing kerbside recycling system.

Although there will be objections to the scheme, the benefits will draw broad community support.

I know I speak for a large majority of my constituents in Baulkham Hills when I say I would be more than happy to pay the extra ten cents, which you can get back, than have to see bottles strewn throughout our parklands.

This is no different to using coin deposit trolleys at the supermarket, except that this is a practical way people can take ownership of caring for the environment.

NOMINATE A SENIOR IN BAULKHAM HILLS FOR A 2015 LOCAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Nominations are now open for the 2015 NSW Seniors Local Achievement Awards.

The Seniors Local Achievement Awards aim to highlight the significant contributions older Australians make to their local community.

We are inviting anyone who knows a senior who deserves recognition for their role in the community to nominate them for an award.

Each local community now has a platform to show their recognition for the talents, skills and generosity of this impressive group."

The awards showcase the enormous talent there is among seniors in our community.

The awards are an opportunity for us to show our appreciation and say thank you to these exceptional seniors," Mr Elliott said.

Nominations for the 2015 NSW Seniors Week Local Achievement Awards are open until Friday 6 February.

For details and nomination forms call the Baulkham Hills Electorate Office on 9686 3110 or email baulkhamhills@parliament.nsw.gov.au.

LAND VALUES TO BE REVIEWED

The NSW Valuer General is reviewing all land values in The Hills Shire.

These land values would form part of a statewide review.

Land values of the 55,175 land holdings in the Hills will occur on Tuesday, 27 January.

While these valuations are generally without controversy, some residents will find themselves in disagreement with the assessment."

Any resident who does wish to dispute the finds of the Valuer General can obtain a review kit by calling 1800 110 038 or visiting www.valuergeneral.com.au

FREE TICKETS TO PREMIER'S GALA CONCERTS FOR NSW SENIORS

The 2015 Premier's Seniors Week Gala Concerts will be held on 17 and 18 March at Qantas Credit Union Arena (the Sydney Entertainment Centre).

Free tickets to the concerts for NSW seniors will be available through Ticketek from 10.00am on Thursday 22 January 2015.

The Premier's Gala Concerts are held each year as a gift for the hard-working and well-deserving seniors of New South Wales.

"The concerts have a fine tradition of providing a fantastic show for seniors, with great music by world-class Australian performers and lots of spectacle.

In 2015, the concerts will channel the big Vegas show, from the years of Frank Sinatra, Elvis and the Rat Pack to today's showstoppers featuring artists such as Tom Jones, Celine Deon and Elton John.

The cast of this year's concerts will include three of Australia's leading stage performers - Kate Maree Hoolihan, star of 'We Will Rock You' and 'Little Women', Michael Falzon, star of 'We Will Rock You', 'War of the Worlds' and 'Hedwig and the Angry Inch' and Matt Lee, Star of 'Mary Poppins' and judge on television's 'So You Think You Can Dance'.

Tickets are available for concerts being held on Tuesday 17 March at 4.30pm and Wednesday 18 March at 10.30am and 2.30pm. A concert for NSW seniors groups at 11.00am on Tuesday 17 March has already booked out.

Attendees must be NSW residents aged 60 years of age or older. People with a lifelong disability and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are classified as a senior if they are aged 50 years or over.

Tickets can be booked at www.ticketek.com.au/nswseniorsweek and in person at participating Ticketek outlets and Westfield Concierge desks. Bookings are also available by phone on 1300 130 613 for the cost of a local call, however seniors are encouraged to be patient if booking by phone, due to the large volume of calls.

The Premier's Gala Concerts are a feature event of NSW Seniors Week, a nine-day seniors festival featuring more than 900 events across the State. 2015 NSW Seniors Week will be held 14 - 22 March. Further information on the concerts and NSW Seniors Week is available at www.nswseniorsweek.com.au

Lulu is a special little lady with a crazy personality and beautifully soft coat with unusual markings. She is looking for a SUPER and very special human friend who doesn't mind a challenge as Lulu is very, very, very timid with absolutely everyone apart from her human foster mum and fur foster brothers Kenny and Piccolo. Because of this I assume that she would take a good month or so to feel comfortable in her forever home. It would help her to feel more confident if she was initially confined to one room at a time where there are no hiding places and where she would need to interact with her new human friend/s. Her carer can discuss future options to assist her transition on inquiry.

MEMORIES with Ivor Jones & Friends

Welcome to Memories. Now how did this column come about? In the past I had a long relationship with this publication under its former name and management. Back in the 1980s & 90s it was the Hills TV Magazine and I was a columnist in that publication (as well as a couple of other local publications). Back in those days I was heavily involved in community activities and events, being on committees that oversaw "The Orange Blossom Festival", Australia Day Celebrations and "Jazz at The Pines" (Dural) as well as holding position in groups such as The Hills Historical Society, Hills Tourism, Neighbourhood Watch and Cumberland Community Radio (now known as Alive 90.5). I have since retired from all those activities and groups.

When the new owner of this publication contacted me and asked that we meet, I could not help but wonder why. It appears that she had read a piece on a facebook group that I manage, in which I had made a comparison between the old publication and the newer publication and as she had only recently acquired this publication a few months back she wanted to know more of its past and its previous content etc.

Anyway to cut a long story short. She wondered if I would like to become part of the publication once more as a columnist. Being a person who likes the idea of retirement where I can spend time cruising the oceans wide, travelling around the countryside or spending more time with family I thought that I would invite a couple of friends to assist me. Now I just need to find some friends.

What should I call the column and what it would consist of was left to me. I thought that "Ivor's Column" would not be appropriate if I were to have a couple of friends also assisting. Now what about "Hills District Memories"? Hmmm I wondered, then thought, "well we have a lot of new residents in the district who would not have past memories of the Hills in their younger days, but we all have memories of our past whether in the Hills or not" So here it is. A column about memories or nostalgia called just plainly "Memories". I intend to try to make this a fun and inclusive column. One where readers can also contribute their memories whether it be of that first date, the games that one played at school, those Saturday nights out with your mates or the first car that you owned. Including in "Memories" will also be pieces on Hills District History from time to time, whether it is buildings, events or people. So there it is readers. A column, for you, to recall things from your past. Get that little brain of yours working, jot down your recollections, go through the family photo albums (photos are also welcome here and besides they are worth a 1000 words or so the saying goes) and send them in. Could be a photo of your great grandad or grandma, the old house or farm that you want to send in with a brief description.

Now talking of memories, after getting back from meeting the new owner of this magazine, I walked into my home and found my wife going back through very old videos that we had taken of our grandson. Now I don't mind telling you he was the most beautiful little boy, the lovely smile on his face, the innocence of his childhood, seeing him on video riding his first bike, enjoying a holiday on the Gold Coast at Sea World and Currumbin brought back some very pleasant memories. What ever happened to that lovely little kid? He turned into a teenager, that's what. No more riding a push bike. It's more "I'm going out for a drive with my mates" now. When I think back to him asking me to help build or put together a little toy he may have got for Christmas, it is now me asking him for assistance in connecting up our pay TV or how do I set up my phone? Where does this thing-a- ma-jig go? Instead of towering over him and looking down, it is now a case of looking up as he towers over me. Entering his bedroom is an adventure in itself. You may as well be in the deepest jungle in Africa attacking vines with a machete as be in his bedroom where there is a virtual mountain range of clothes on the floor that you have to climb over. When you finally reach the wardrobe or closet you're more likely to find it empty apart from the vacant close hangers hanging on a rail. I guess somewhere in that room would be a bed also, why else would it be called a bedroom? Still it is great being a grandparent. I wouldn't miss it for quids.

Some things never change. In the aforementioned video there is a scene where my grandson hands me a toy with the request that I assemble it for him. I can be heard quite clearly saying "I'll have to read the instructions". My wife, in the background is heard saying "That'll be a first". She continues to say it to this day. I honestly don't know why.

Remember back in the day, when a drive around the Hills district would include stopping at a roadside stall and buying fresh fruit and vegetables outside the farm or property gate? Council by-laws put an end to many roadside stalls that once operated along with the practice of some who did not honour the principle of actually paying for the produce taken by putting money into the "Honesty Box" that may have been situated on the table. I was surprised this week, when driving between Glenorie and Baulkham Hills to actually find an operating road side stall. I spoke to the owner who told me that he opened it up just a week or so earlier and that he has not yet had any problem with people just taking the produce without paying. What do you remember about the roadside stalls that were once so prolific in the area?

Remember when you would walk into a local pub or club and there would only be a limited range of brews to choose from, mostly from the one brewer because the pub or club would be "tied" to that brewery? Now with so many micro-breweries around you can go into some pubs and there would be a huge range of brews on tap.

Ah the memories. If you have memories or photos to share with this column you can send them to Hills.memories@groups.facebook.com. Readers can also share memories and photos on facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/Hills.memories/> Where you will also find quite a few photos and memories posted by other members of the Hills District Memories group.

Original Australian Talent To Take Bella Vista Farm Park Stage

A musical icon will headline an all-Australian stage of talented performers as we celebrate our national day at Bella Vista Farm Park on Monday 26 January.

Leading the pack will be Australian Songwriters Hall of Famer Kate Ceberano. With more than three decades in the spotlight, Ceberano will need little introduction to the thousands in the audience on Australia Day.

Co-ordinating the stage will be Australian actor, director, comedian and occasional singer Shane Jacobson, who burst on the scene in 2006 with his role as the title-character in the mockumentary Kenny.

Warming up for Ceberano will be the dynamic Sydney Hills country pop trio of Holly Moore, Tiara Maceri and Peta Ingleton – better known as Victoria Avenue.

The trio are named after the Castle Hill street where they attended singing school. They re-visited the street this week where Australia Day promotional flags bearing their image are now flying.

The rising stars of the Australian country music scene are looking forward to performing in front of a big crowd in their home town.

Tiara said the trio were buoyed by their on-stage cameo at the Sydney Country Music Festival and couldn't wait to get back on stage at Bella Vista Farm.

They will also be joined by Simply Bushed who will perform their unique brand of outback-inspired Australian country music.

Australia Day At The Farm

What: Australiana theme, Kate Ceberano, MC Shane Jacobson, Victoria Avenue, Simply Bushed, Fireworks, flag raising ceremony, Citizenship ceremony, Australia

Castle Hill North Precinct On Exhibition

A vision for the future of the Castle Hill North Precinct following the commencement of the North West Rail Link is now on exhibition for public comment.

Hills Shire Mayor Clr Andrew Jefferies said the draft Castle Hill North Precinct Plan included higher density residential buildings closer to the Castle Hill Town Centre and future rail station.

Mayor Jefferies said that residents would have the opportunity to speak to Council's Forward Planning team at drop in sessions to be held at Castle Hill Library on Thursday 5 February between 11am - 7pm and Saturday 14 February between 11am - 3pm.

The Mayor also cautioned that the plan was still very much in draft form.

Aussie Fire Cart A Winner

A new trolley mounted version of the Aussie Fire Chief bushfire fighting pump is available from Aussie Pump dealer Thinkwater, Dural. Called the Aussie Fire Cart, the pump can be easily moved around either farm or bushland property.

The Aussie Fire Chief is regarded as being Australia's iconic high pressure firefighting pump. The only pump of its kind in the world backed by an exclusive 5 year warranty, the Fire Chief is claimed to not only outlast competitors but also produce an unequalled combination of pressure and flow. With a maximum flow of 500 lpm and with a maximum head of 75 metres, that's over 100 psi, the pump simply produces more water at high pressure.

The new Aussie Fire Cart converts an Aussie Fire Chief high performance fire pump into a mobile unit that can be easily deployed around a property.

Powered by genuine Honda engines with a horsepower range up to 13HP, these unique pumps are loaded with user friendly features. The big belly body enables the pump to prime fast from vertical lifts of 7.6 metres. The huge 7.5 inch diameter, hydraulically engineered, one piece impeller weighs up to 2.5 times that of competitors.

The pump features a flanged, bolt on suction port that means the check valve can be serviced without having to dismantle the complete pump. The flanged, three way outlet provides a choice of either two 1 inch outlets or a 1.5 inch outlet for top performance. The outlet ports are fitted with metal caps and chains, not plastic! A big port is built into the lower pump body for easy draining.

The new heavy duty steel trolley, fitted with big 10 inch foam filled tyre wheels means the pump can operate from a robust steady base, but at the same time is highly mobile.

The Aussie Fire Cart is featured in the latest edition of Aussie's Fire Smart Survival Guide, a comprehensive booklet covering protection of property, livestock and even lives during bushfire season. The guide is available from Thinkwater Dural or online at www.aussiepumps.com.au.

Soul Mates
Wednesday, 28 January 2015

#ourABC

A bromance for the ages, Soul Mates is the story of two kindred spirits trapped in a cycle of death and rebirth, exploring reincarnation in four different lifetimes: Cavemen 50,000 years ago, 1981 Kiwi Assassins, present day Bondi Hipsters and a Travel Time office in 2093.

In episode two, Rocky and Sticks argue the ethics of sex after clubbing. It's a thing, but does that make it right? Spotting his perfect mate, spellbound Rocky needs Sticks to be his go-between. However, his Paleolithic pin-up rejects Rocky and gives Sticks no choice but to submit to an encounter that changes the game forever.

Dom forages for modelling work, but all he scores is a new Tinder contact - Kelly, Phoenix's almost ex. A feverish Adrian works on ' ' until Dom drags him from his descent into madness to a Bondi bar, where Adrian finds unexpected inspiration and Dom sniffs out a different reward. Roger and Thingie are challenged by the unforgiving Australian terrain before Mum gives them their first mission... to entice a young Russell Crowe back to New Zealand with a lucrative acting scholarship. Roger engages an age-old espionage routine with Russell's Aunt Hazel, while Thingie unlocks the mystery of his loose cannon partner and the woman he calls Mum.

Dave detests Rob's metal-morphosis, tormenting his new boss with the type of insults only a best mate could invent. Rob agrees to host office drinks to repair the relationship, but they find themselves competing for the attention of new employee, Trix.

The Australian Outback; over 90 million sheep and cattle call this unforgiving land home, as does the Australian cowboy - the jackaroo. Generations of men have been the lifeblood of the largest beef and wool exporting industry in the world, but as cities grow and the mines boom, the jackaroo is leaving the land.

In 2012 a call was put out across Australia, looking for trainees fired up by the possibility of making their way in what is traditionally a man's world: women with a vision for a future on the land, the wide open spaces that make up 90% of the country we call Australia. Enter five wannabe jillaroos. Coming from every walk of life and ranging in age from late teens to mid-forties, five trainees were selected, including Deb, a journalist recently made redundant; Janine, an Indigenous woman looking for the skill base to run a cattle station with her family on country; and Tessa, a young, single mum trying to build a new life for herself and her son. On an outback property in the beautiful Southern Flinders Ranges the women are put through their paces by Bill Willoughby, one of Australia's best known Horse Masters and Camp Drafting champion. With a dry wit and a story to tell, Bill is a salt of the earth character who pulls no punches when it comes to telling people what he thinks they ought to know about themselves, horses, life on the land or the state of the world. His wife Barb is there to help too, to share the tips and tricks of the trade - one woman to another, with a ready shoulder to cry on when the going gets tough.

For the next four weeks, horse riding, motorbike riding, quad bike riding, mucking out, saddling up, mustering and putting cattle through the yards are all just in a day's work for the five novice jillaroos. Some challenges prove more arduous than others as the women discover that pregnancy testing a cow is a somewhat dirty job and fencing is just plain hard yakka, but it is teamwork that will ensure success in the end. Will they all be cut out to be jillaroos?

Troy Quigg (James Stewart) and his wife Maree (Kate Jenkinson) live on the Gold Coast with their two teenage children Mitchell (Lincoln Younes) and Shaneen (Olivia DeJonge). An average family, happy in the surf and sunshine, until Troy gets caught in the crossfire of a major crime-bust and the family's world is thrown into chaos. Placed into Witness Protection, Troy, Maree and the kids are given new identities and relocated to another city.

Now known as the Swifts - Lincoln, Rebecca, Mitchell and Tara are under the care of Detective John Pinder (Stephen Curry), a maverick cop who doesn't trust anyone, including his own colleagues. Fearing the official safe house could be compromised, Pinder houses the Swift family in an abandoned squat in the inner city. Cut off from family and friends, they are warned never to contact anyone from their old life again. The smallest slip-up could bring a killer to their door.

None of this comes naturally to Lincoln. With his decidedly non-academic background, his two sharp-tongued kids and his much-loved wife struggling to understand how the hell they got there, his life is far from easy...

Worst Place to be a Pilot
Monday, 26 January at 8.30pm
New Series Premiere

A visually jaw-dropping series that follows young British pilots flying in some of the most breathtaking, remote and dangerous locations on earth.

Episode One: Indonesia: In the first episode, the new recruits come face to face with the remarkable range of challenges that flying in Indonesia presents. Captain George is greeted by a large group of tribes people after he becomes the first pilot to land on a runway that's taken them 14 years to cut into the side of a mountain.

The locals tell him about their cannibal ancestors. Guy takes drastic action as a passenger has a mid-air panic attack, and Sam struggles to control the plane during landing as he flies local tribes people to one of the most remote and spectacular runways in the world.

The English Patient
Oscar Winners Season
Saturday, 31 January at 8.30pm on SBS ONE

Starting on Saturday, 31 January at 8.30pm SBS ONE will present a sensational line-up of five Oscar winning films, boasting some of the biggest names in Hollywood.

The English Patient

Anthony Minghella wrote and directed this award-winning adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's novel about a doomed and tragic romance set against the backdrop of World War II. At the close of WWII, a young nurse tends to a badly-burned plane crash victim. His past is shown in flashbacks, revealing an involvement in a fateful love affair.

Sounds Like Teen Spirit: triple j At 40
Monday, 26 January 2015 - 8:30pm
Australia Day Special/Encore

This Australia Day sit back and relax with a snag and a beer and take a look back at the Aussie cultural icon - triple j. The story of triple j is the story of a recalcitrant Australian teenager growing up, adapting to, and impacting upon a very different world to the one in which it was born. From the station's anarchic beginnings in 1975 as Sydney's alternative radio station, Double J, to its restructuring and controversial rebranding as it went national as triple j in the 90s, to its role in unearthing new talent and staging major music events for the nation's youth.

We also look back at the station's first female DJs Gayle Austin and Keri Phillips; the controversial radio documentary Ins and Outs of Love; at Fuck the Police - the song that shut down the station due to its explicit lyrics and themes; Jen Oldershaw's disastrous interview with Nirvana; and the debate about triple j's playlist as the station continues to field criticism for what it plays and what it doesn't.

This tale of triple j is told by a stellar line-up of the larger-than-life characters - DJs, managers, producers, comedy duos, and music stars from the 70s to now. We hear behind-the-scenes anecdotes from Roy & HG, Jono & Dano, Gotye, Missy Higgins, Daniel Johns, Wil Anderson, Adam Spencer, Myf Warhurst, Hilltop Hoods, Peter Garrett, Mikey Robins, Helen Razer plus many more, who share their stories of what it was like working at this iconic station.

With a pumping soundtrack evoking the mood of each decade, Sounds Like Teen Spirit explores how one small radio station became the finger on the pulse of a burgeoning Australian youth culture and revolutionised the cultural landscape for a new generation.

Don't Just Stand There, I'm Having Your Baby
Friday, 6 February 2015 - 8:30pm
New Series

Behind every new mum ... is a new dad.

Two thirds of new fathers feel useless during their partners' pregnancy and nearly half feel unprepared for the birth. But all that is about to change...

In series two of Don't Just Stand There, I'm Having Your Baby, we meet another group of first-time UK dads who are on a crash course in pregnancy and childbirth.

Many new dads feel left out of pregnancy and sidelined at the birth, not really knowing what's expected of them. Under the watchful eye of experienced midwives these 12 dads-to-be are being trained up to be masters of maternity, so that when push comes to shove, they can help their partners on the big day. But will these dads deliver?

They've got only weeks to prove to their partners, their midwives and themselves, that they have what it takes to go from clueless lad to clued up-dad. Are they up to the job?

This week, Portsmouth, two dads-to-be need help for very different reasons. 26-year old chef Martyn feels totally out of his comfort zone and has his head firmly buried in the sand when it comes to the pregnancy; while 25-year-old electrician Shane, not the brightest spark when it comes to childbirth, wants total command of the birth and thinks he can deliver his own baby.

Live at the Apollo
Saturday, 7 February 2015 - 9:15pm
New Series

A fantastic line-up of well known faces play host to some of the hottest names on the comedy circuit, live from the world famous Apollo Theatre in London.

For this series, each episode is hosted by a different guest, from newer faces such as Russell Howard and Michael McIntyre to established performers such as Lenny Henry, Al Murray ('The Pub Landlord'), Sean Lock and Dara O'Brian.

Each performs a special set before introducing some of the hottest names on the comedy circuit - from American Rich Hall to Scotsman Frankie Boyle, Irishman Ed Byrne, and one of the best female comics in England, Jo Brand.

The series delivers a wide variety of performance styles, a vast array of laughs, and covers everything from religion and politics to the enormously tricky task of purchasing a duvet.

In the first episode one of comedy's true legends, Eddie Izzard, introduces two of comedy's biggest stars, South Africa's Trevor Noah and Devon's favourite son Josh Widdicombe.

THE WAY WE USED TO BE

WELCOME BACK to Mrs. Hoogesteger, of Hillside Public School, who has just returned from a trip to Scotland to visit family and friends.

TOONGABBIE PUBLIC SCHOOL Choir and Dance Group will be participating in this year's Holroyd Festival for the "Cluster Music Festival" on Wednesday, August 25, at Greystanes High School. The festival will be held over two days on August 24 and 25 at the high school.

MRS. ANNETTE FRITH and daughter Nicki have returned home to Castle Hill after six weeks in the U.K. and Europe. They were greeted with a severe frost to welcome them home.

THE CASTLE HILL PLAYERS' latest production, "The Club", opened last week at the Pavilion Theatre, Castle Hill and proved an outstanding success. The whole action takes place in the boardroom of "the club" and is directed by Nigel Lee. We recommend the play to you.

GOOD TO MEET Rev. Bob Milne at Castle Hill last week. Rev. Milne has retired from the Ministry due to medical reasons, but is in grand spirits. Rev. Milne was Rector of St. Paul's Church, Castle Hill, for a record term of 19 years between 1959 and 1978.

WELL, SURPRISE, SURPRISE, the favourite for Liberal Party pre-selection for the seat of The Hills, Baulkham Hills Councillor Peggy Womersley, missed out. Peggy got beaten by magazine publisher Michael Richardson. Michael and his late father have been long-time members of the Liberal Party. The by-election will be held on Saturday, August 28.

WELL, WE'RE ALL HUMAN, we all make mistakes. While listening to the news on a local radio station, the announcer reported that "a 51-year-old man died from a heat attack during the City to Surf". I think he meant heart attack.

Whispers in The Hills

By Jennifer Touzel

I'M ALWAYS receiving a lot of junk mail in my letterbox of late. Last weekend I received a leaflet from the Toongabbie Ward Action Group advising of a public meeting to be held on Sunday, August 15 at 2.30 p.m. at the Girl Guides Hall, Edison Place, Winston Hills, to discuss the potential development of the Grand United Centenary Land in Hammers Road.

PART OF ST. PAUL'S congregation visited Kangaroo Valley and Bowral in the Southern Highlands last weekend. A group of men from St. Paul's, Castle Hill, informed their hosts of the work being done by their Parish at Castle Hill.

HILLSIDE PUBLIC SCHOOL'S Band Leader, Victor Grieve, has recently returned home after a very successful world trip with his Golden Kangaroos Marching Band. The band toured Moscow, Paris, London and Amsterdam, just to name a few places and received two silver medals and one bronze.

HILLS AUSSI MASTERS' Swimming Club was once again victorious as the top point-scoring club at the Shoalhaven Masters' Meeting, competing with 23 members. Scott Markich won his age group and set a new State record. Mary Garton won the Senior Age Group and broke her own national record. Allan Gregson won his age group, while Di Coxon, Marg Davey and Ray Marshall came second in their respective groups. Hills Aussi Masters train at Gary Winram's Galston Pool on Tuesday evenings at 8 p.m.

CONGRATULATIONS to Ron Howe, of West Pennant Hills, who celebrated his 80th birthday on August 11.

BISHOP WATSON of Parramatta was at St. Paul's Anglican Church last Sunday for the Confirmation Service. An overflow congregation was present to join in the service for the 54 candidates.

MRS. PAM TRIMMER, of Baulkham Hills, was re-elected President of The Hills District Historical Society at the Society's Annual Meeting. Mrs. Lorna McCluskey was re-elected Secretary, whilst Mr. Bruce Clarke was confirmed in the position of Treasurer.

57.5mm (230 Points) of rain were recorded at Castle Hill for the month of July. This bought the yearly rainfall so far to 421.75mm (1687 points).

AUGUST IS CERTAINLY the "birthday month" for many older citizens of The Hills. Congratulations to the following who will be celebrating 90th birthdays during this month: Mrs. M. A. Clark (Kilvinton), Mrs. L. E. Hatfield (Leumeah), Miss M. O. Swain (Warrina), Miss A. L. Gulliver (Mowll), Mr. W. E. Gardner (Mowll), Mrs. D. G. Screen (Nuffield) and Mrs. Olive Thorpe (Nuffield).

THE KENTWELL FOUNDATION will hold a Garage Sale on Saturday, August 21, to raise money to fund the planting of trees on the Hawkesbury dairy farm at the University of Western Sydney. Donations of goods suitable would be appreciated. If you are able to help, would you please phone 634 1152.

WHISPER HAS IT that the Winston Hills Motor Registry Office will be closing down at Christmas. Shopkeepers at Winston Hills have petitions circulating at present to keep the Winston Hills Motor Registry open.

GALSTON HIGH SCHOOL has already had a visit this term from its patron, Ms Pat O'Shane, a distinguished magistrate. Ms O'Shane spoke with a Year 10 history class, as well as Year 11 and Year 12 students. Visits from other patrons include Dr. Harry Edwards, Prof. Bruce Mansfield, Densley Clyne, actor Tony Martin and Mark Macleod. These talks are proving very popular with students.

JANUARY GARDENING

Vegies to sow in January – Kale

Kale has been top of the popularity stakes for the last year or so and, while experts argue about whether it deserves its ‘super food’ reputation, supermarkets and green grocers can’t keep up with demand. The answer, of course, is to grow your own. Yates Kale seeds can be sown in January into trays or pots of Yates Seed Raising Mix. Keep in a cool spot and transplant the seedlings into a garden bed when they’re well established.

Flowers to sow in January – Alyssum

Alyssum is so easy to grow from seed that every garden should be dotted with these tiny, charming bunches of bloom. Alyssum Cameo Mix, with its blend of pastel shades, adds patches of gentle colour. As an added bonus, the honey scent of alyssum flowers attracts bees and other garden ‘friendlies’.

Feed in January

Fruit trees growing in the ground will appreciate a feed with Dynamic Lifter PLUS Fruit Food. It has the perfect combination of organic matter and correctly balanced nutrients. Potted fruit should be fertilised with Thrive Citrus Liquid Plant Food but remember, a liquid fertiliser like this will need to be re-applied every couple of weeks.

Prune in January

Prune summer fruit trees (peaches etc.) as soon as their crop has finished. This allows them to make new growth before winter. Cut back the non-flowering shoots on hydrangeas this month. This will encourage multiple heads that will (hopefully) develop more flowers next summer.

January pest watch

As summer progresses, caterpillars increase in numbers. Watch out for bud grubs on geraniums, loopers on lettuces, grapevine moth and the leaf-rolling light brown apple moth. These can all be taken care of with Success Ultra, a new generation insect pest control that’s derived from a beneficial soil bacteria.

January job file – Weed watch

In summer weeds grow so rapidly it’s important to keep on top of them and not to allow them to get to seeding stage. Remove by hand or spray the seedlings with fast-acting Zero Rapid. Cut off and bag any weed seeds before taking out the parent plant.

Yates Once a Year Path Weeder gives long term protection from weeds that invade paths and driveways.

Plant of the month – Tree begonias

These underrated plants are ideal for those difficult shaded spots in frost-free gardens. They have upright, caney growth, pretty flowers and interestingly shaped or spotted leaves. They grow easily from cuttings.

Sydney Hills Small Business Exchange Expo

The Sydney Hills Small Business Exchange Expo is just six weeks away and Hills Shire Mayor Clr Andrew Jefferies has encouraged Hills small businesses to get on board.

"This Exchange will help our small businesses to have many complex legal and compliance questions answered, all at no charge. This kind of advice will be a real help for our smaller enterprises," Mayor Jefferies said.

The Exchange will allow business owners to have 15 minute appointments with the agencies and organisations of their choice, including the Australian Taxation Office, the Australian Securities and Investment Commission, the NSW Small Business Commissioner's office and many more. Questions can relate to changing superannuation laws, human resource rights and awards, financial planning, software design, marketing tools, online resources for business and business mentoring.

In addition, business owners will be able to attend informative and practical workshops while networking with other small business owners located in the Sydney Hills.

"97% of all Sydney Hills businesses are classified as small and the Exchange will really help them get ahead in 2015."

Organisations that are committed to this new initiative have put their support behind it to make sure it gets to all the small businesses in the area."

"I want to thank our major event sponsors Crowe Horwath and 360 HR and the expo support partners Small Biz Connect and NSW Trade and Investment. We hope it will become an annual date on our calendar for business."

"Our event partners and sponsors have shown a great commitment to support small businesses in the Sydney Hills and the event would not be possible without them."

"I look forward to opening this event with NSW Small Business Commissioner Robyn Hobbs on Wednesday March 11."

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614
