▲ A Farm and Garden scene at Koala Park with children from the Far West Home. In addition to koalas, the park became a refuge for a number of other native animals. (Parramatta Heritage Centre)

◀ When Noel Burnet opened a sanctuary for koalas in West Pennant Hills he did not foresee the popularity it would achieve as a major tourist attraction for local and overseas visitors. Zane Grey, the famed American big game hunter and angler is seen here in the 1930s cuddling a baby at the park. (ML SLNSW)

Koala Park, Castle Hill Road

In the late 1920's Noel Burnet became alarmed at the number of koalas being killed for the fur export trade. Fearing their extinction, he spend his life researching their habits and fighting to protect the species. He provided a safe haven where they could live and breed in their natural surroundings with a 30 acre site purchased from the Sam Shields Estate on the Castle Hill Road. To help fund his activities and draw attention to the plight of these charming marsupials, he opened Koala Park in October 1930.

It later moved to the northern side of the road. A long family involvement in the sanctuary resulted in his daughter Noela McNamara managing Koala Park today. It has become one of Sydney's favoured tourist destinations. TREASURED STORIES OF YESTERYEAR by Trevor Patrick

DISCOVER THE INDUSTRIAL TREASURE ISLAND OF SYDNEY HARBOUR

Colonial Governors Sir George Gipps (1838-46) and Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy (1846-55) developed Cockatoo Island, the largest in Sydney Harbour, into a valuable boat building and repair centre.

Convicts from Norfolk Island were removed from that settlement in 1840 to begin building on Cockatoo Island. High quality sandstone building blocks were quarried from the northern side of the island with gunpowder charges being used to bring down portions of the cliff. The explosions were eagerly watched by spectators on the Balmain peninsula, many of whom expected the island to disappear beneath the waters of Port Jackson.

Two docks were created on the eastern side of the island and ship-building slipways on the western side during the nineteenth and early twentieth century. The first modern warship was built in 1912 from steel sent from Britain.

You can easily visit Cockatoo Island, a fascinating shipping museum

World War II created the need for a large workforce which ultimately serviced over a thousand ships. Cockatoo Island became the Commonwealth Naval Dockyard where Navy destroyers, Voyager and Vampire, were built and the T-Class and O-Class submarines were refitted. In 1979, the contract to build HMAS Success was signed and although it was the largest naval vessel built in Australia it was destined to be the last one built on the island. The Commonwealth Government decided to close the dockyard in 1992 with much of the machinery sold and buildings and wharves demolished. The Sydney Harbour Federation Trust now administers the island and invites you to come and visit by catching a Sydney Ferry from Circular Quay.

SELF DEFENCE FOR KIDS

Perhaps the most common scenario for a child to need self-defence is when facing a bully.

A good self defence program teaches how to diffuse situations, only resorting to physical defence as a last resort. Children should learn how to protect themselves from punches, kicks and throws, but should always be taught to try other possible methods to prevent a fight. A good self defence program should teach the children to detect and prevent situations from escalating to violence.

Children should be taught different methods such as walking away from a bully, telling their parents and teachers about their issues and verbally forcing the bully to back down to name a few. Kids must also be encouraged to develop their confidence – not because they practice martial arts, but rather as a way of accepting themselves.

Parents should role play a bullying scenario with their children to prepare them for real situations.

THE GREENS' PLAN FOR A BETTER NSW
PUBLIC TRANSPORT,
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT,
CLEAN POLITICS

Only the Greens will clean up NSW politics and build a more caring society.

While the old parties fight, we are developing legislative initiatives that truly matter for the people of the Hills Shire.

This election is the best chance we have to:

- Demand a public transport system that supports us, our families and the environment.
- Protect the remainder of the Hill's bushland areas, which have been degraded by abuse of the 10/50 rule.
- Protecting the Hills Shire from over-development.

VOTE GREEN for a fairer and better NSW.

THIS IS WHAT A BUYER SAID ABOUT MORGANS

6 YEARS AGO!

6th March 2009

Morgans Realty

Dear Sid

Compliments!

I would like to take the opportunity to thank you for the wonderful experience we had in dealing with you and your company in our purchase of 50 Rothwell Circuit, Glenwood.

The untiring and relentless pursuit of customer service exhibited by Morgan's has been nothing but exemplary. From repairing the house to providing amenities for rubbish disposal out of their own pocket has really been something that I have never experienced before in any other property purchases.

I would strongly recommend Morgan's to anyone - from the point of their world class website to their exceptional customer service. This property company knows what they are doing and they live by only one rule - please the customer at any expense!

I am confident that given time this boutique outfit will be a major force to be reckoned with in the Australian Property Market given their innovative ways of doing things and their personal touch.

Yours sincerely,
Jude Gibson
HR Director

THIS IS WHAT A SELLER SAID ABOUT MORGANS

TODAY!

14th March 2015

Sid Morgan was our agent who we engaged to sell our property, our townhouse in Castle Hill. He achieved the goal we set him to sell our property for over a million dollars, even exceeding our expectations by having it sold within two weeks.

Sid worked his hardest to receive the full potential for our property. Not only did he highlight the benefits of our property in his video presentation but always provided the highest quality for the printed and internet materials.

These actions definitely ensured to filter out idle watchers, leaving only serious buyers. He knows the market well. He advised us of ways to modify few extra features making the house 100% presentable. With only the smallest changes we were able to maximise our price in the current market. I do not believe anyone else could do any better with even a single cent more.

Everything was perfect. He is always there to help you and we would highly recommend Sid to anyone looking to sell.

Yours sincerely
Tatiana Kivva, Igor Pluznik

MORGANS LAW

"WHAT AM I?"

I am revered by the old and often squandered by the youth. I am far more valuable than money and rarer than gold. I am the most precious commodity. I can't be sold, bought or traded. Once spent, I am gone forever. Used wisely, I can make people successful. I can mend a broken heart, and give clarity and perspective to any event. I am often sought after by family, friends and colleagues. I am by far the greatest gift you could give to anyone.

WHAT AM I? I AM TIME!

Finding a Real Estate Agent who respects your time is essential.

At MORGANS we respect and value your time as much as we do ours. This is why everything we do involves saving you time – the time you could spend doing more important things in life. Every property we list, irrespective of price, nature or location is given a video presentation, colour floor plans, site plans, professional photography, consequently leaving nothing to the imagination. When you list your property with MORGANS we guarantee that it will be showcased to a global market 24/7! Your time will never be wasted with unqualified buyers visiting your home.

Your Agent,
Sid Morgan

Managing Director, Yvonne Morgan,

MORGANS®

Prestige Homes®

Morgans Prestige was created to specifically cater for the niche market of Prestige Homes in any area. We established there was a real need for Prestige Homes to be properly showcased in a unique, upmarket fashion befitting their very nature and caliber.

When Morgans Prestige lists a Prestige Home, the branding is all about the home and the address it bears. Whilst our own identity is important, we realise that the focus needs to be on the property. This is why in all our marketing material, you will always see the property's address bigger than our logo. A Prestige Home deserves all the focus.

We have a highly qualified marketing department dedicated to supporting the sales staff in tailoring a unique campaign for the marketing of your Prestige Home. Both teams work closely together to create an individual marketing campaign that showcases your home to a global market 24/7.

“ I don't care where your office is. You've got my business. I can't praise you enough! ”

“ We have dealt with a number of estate agents over the last 30 years & you are by far the best! ”

At Morgans we understand the importance of branding and creating awareness in the consciousness of the community at large. We know the MORGANS brand is seen as one you can trust. We understand the needs of all our valued clients.

Inside The Commons: Lifting The Lid Sunday, 22 March 2015 - 7:40pm New Series

#ourABC

In this major four-part documentary series, we are taken into the heart of British democracy, the House of Commons. Filmed over a year in the run up to the 2015 general election, reporter Michael Cockerell is given unparalleled access. Inside the Commons goes where cameras are normally banned - deep inside the Palace of Westminster, and reveals a behind-the-scenes peek during a remarkable year in politics, in the run up to one of the most unpredictable general elections ever.

We follow ministers and MPs as they navigate the machinery of the House, make laws and fight their constituents' battles. We're introduced to the people who keep the Commons working: the keeper of Big Ben; the Hawker responsible for keeping pigeons off the 19th century stonework to the singing tea lady of the Members' Tea Room.

From crumbling stonework to leaky roofs, we see the challenges faced in keeping the country's most iconic and historic building functioning as a modern parliament.

In episode one, we meet two new female MPs, Charlotte Leslie and Sarah Champion, as they learn the ways of the House. We hear from those at the top including Prime Minister David Cameron, and Leader of the Labour Party Ed Miliband, who give us an insight into what happens at Prime Minister's questions, and we go behind the scenes on budget day.

We meet a maintenance team abseiling down the face of Big Ben, and follow the Commons' Clerk of the House, Sir Robert Rogers, whose job is to keep the whole show on the road.

Stop Laughing... this is serious Episode 1: Look At Moi, Look At Moi Wednesday, 25 March 2015 - 9:00pm Series Premiere

#ourABC

A three-part documentary series charting a course through the story of Australian comedy, featuring more than 60 interviews with the men and women who make us laugh. Through a blend of social history, extensive archive material and intimate interviews with some of the country's most loved comedians, we travel via stand-up, radio, television, theatre and film from Indigenous comedy to new viral media jokers of today, revealing how humour, laughter and comedy are integral to our national identity.

By unpicking our cultural cringe, poking fun at our national identity, confronting hard truths and exploring our taboos, we come to realise that Australians' greatest characteristic is our ability to laugh at ourselves.

Narrated by Eric Bana, the series explores the development of Australian comedy through social and political change, examining the way humour has reflected and responded to multicultural Australia, gender issues, and politics. Each episode moves seamlessly through time, weaving contemporary comedy with early comedic performance, featuring insight and anecdotes from what Barry Humphries calls 'the cheering up business'.

The first episode, "LOOK AT MOI, LOOK AT MOI" (Kath and Kim) looks inwards at the importance of our ability to laugh at ourselves. From Edna Everage, the mousy, Melbourne housewife, and Sandy Stone - the man to whom nothing ever happens, to school kids like Kylie Mole and Ja'mie and Aussie battlers like Dad and Dave, Paul Hogan and Kenny, we realise that what's right under our very own nose is often the funniest thing of all.

The second episode "FAARK, FAARK" (Graham Kennedy) looks upwards at those in authority. We have long revered the little guy punching upwards, and we love to celebrate the rebels and rogues who can make us laugh at our situation no matter how grim. From Graham Kennedy, Les Patterson and Magda Szubanski, via the university comedy revues, to Tim Minchin and The Chaser, we love a larrikin with a sense of mischief and acknowledge their vital role in keeping the bastards honest.

The final and third episode "HELLO POSSUMS" (Dame Edna) looks at Australian comedy on the world stage. We examine the transfer of comedic ideas between our nation and the rest of the world, revealing how pioneers like Barry Humphries, Wendy Harmer, Rod Quantock, Adam Hills, Paul Hogan and John Clarke crossed boundaries with their wit and tenacity. We explore 'online' as a new way of getting comedy to mass audiences and meet some of the next generation in Australian comedy.

Throughout the series we will explore how comedy ties us together as a nation, traversing generations and bridging cultural divides. We Aussies love to laugh at ourselves, our politics, our fellow Australians - are there no sacred cows? Along the way the viewer will laugh but also come to appreciate the craft of our greatest comedians who ultimately reveal important truths about the world in which we live.

ABC 2 Tattoo Tales
Wednesday, 1 April - 9:40pm - New Series

Tattoo Tales is a revealing documentary series that offers unique, entertaining and often poignant insights into contemporary Australia from inside the walls of a tattoo studio. Where once tattoos were badges of honour for the more marginal groups in society, getting inked is now an exploding social phenomenon. A far cry from their criminal connotations of the past, these days' celebrities, hipsters and grandmothers alike flock to get tattoos - with one in seven Australians now sporting ink. Yet tattoos are expensive, painful, and polarising.

Tattoo Tales explores the issues by conducting a social experiment inside a busy tattoo studio on Sydney's famous Bondi Beach tourist strip. Twelve fixed rig cameras record the day-to-day antics and artistry inside the studio and capture the stories behind each tattoo.

Topics include grief, pain, illness, violence, weight-loss, heartbreak, cultural clashes, immigration, and same-sex marriage. The series looks at the social implications, employment struggles and judgments facing those who get 'inked'. All with an intriguing mix of heart and humour. Laugh and cry as their stories are told: a young mother who has survived three open heart surgeries and wants to illustrate her story of survival; a much-loved grandmother who gets ink on her 83rd birthday; a motor biking-paraplegic who finds strength and confidence in her tattoos; an extreme ink addict with a controversial message for society and a buff personal trainer with a soft heart, missing his late mother. Whatever you think of tattoos you're bound to be intrigued by the motivations behind inking when you take a peek at Tattoo Tales.

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by David Elliott, Member for Baulkham Hills

GUARANTEED LOWER PRICES FOR ELECTRICITY CUSTOMERS

A re-elected Baird Government will require bidders for the 49 per cent lease of the electricity 'poles and wires' to sign a guarantee that network prices will be lower in 2019 than they were in 2014.

Respected former Australian Competition and Consumer Commission chair Allan Fels will take on the new role of Electricity Price Commissioner, to oversee the implementation and operation of the Price Guarantee.

Professor Fels's role will include sign-off that each transaction will not put upward pressure on prices in the short, medium or long term.

We've got power prices back under control, after they rose by about 60 per cent over five years under NSW Labor.

This Price Guarantee, and the appointment of Professor Fels to oversee it, is our contract with the people of NSW that network prices will not rise as a result of our plan.

Under the Price Guarantee, the Baird Government will require bidders to:

- Guarantee that network charges will be lower in 2019 than they were in 2014;
- Cut waste and unnecessary costs in the electricity business;
- Curtail union rorts and work practices that have pushed up prices;
- Ensure no return of "gold plating" of the networks; and
- Pass on savings from greater efficiency to consumers, in accordance with the AER's Efficiency Benefit Sharing Scheme.

Successful bidders will be required to provide an annual statement on their compliance with the Guarantee to the Electricity Price Commissioner, who will be able to refer any concerns to the Australian Energy Regulator or the ACCC.

The question here is, whom do you trust to keep downward pressure on electricity prices?

Is it discredited NSW Labor, or is it the Baird Government, with the additional oversight of Australia's most respected consumer advocate?

ANOTHER MAJOR TUNNELLING MILESTONE REACHED AS THE NORTH WEST RAIL LINK POWERS AHEAD

The second North West Rail Link tunnel boring machine broke through on 4 March after tunnelling more than 2 kilometres from Bella Vista.

Tunnelling started about six months ago and already we're making great progress. All four 900 tonne tunnel boring machines are in the ground – ahead of schedule and $300 million under budget – and have dug more than 6 kilometres in total.

When the North West Rail Link opens in the first half of 2019, trains will run every four minutes in the peak and customers won't need a timetable. You'll be able to turn up and catch reliable, clean and modern rapid train services never-before seen in Australia.

Designs for the new Norwest Station have also been released, one of eight state-of-the-art railway stations being delivered as part of the project.

Norwest is one of the fastest growing employment centres in Sydney. About 15,000 people travel here for work every day, including from major Australian and international companies, and we expect this to increase to 30,000 by 2031.

The North West Rail Link will change the way of life for people living and working in Sydney's North West.

Labor announced, cancelled and re-announced this project for more than a decade, and failed to get started. Their latest so-called infrastructure plan is another kick in the guts for Western Sydney families.

If the Baird Government is re-elected, we want to extend Rapid Transit right across our great city, travelling under the CBD and west to Bankstown.

Our plan, together with major infrastructure upgrades, will increase capacity on the rail network by 60 per cent and give public transport customers access to fast, reliable and modern turn-up-and-go services.

Meet Cody A lovely little cross breed of unknown background. He has been in care for more than 12 months now and would love to find his forever home. Cody is NOT suitable for families with young children regardless of their experience in handling dogs as he will nip at your hands without warning. He doesn't break the skin but you can be happily patting him sudden he will nip at your hand in play which could scare a small child. Cody is also not suited to an environment where he would spend long hours in his own as he loves constant companionship either human or another dog or both. Currently Cody is an inside dog. He is a very active and loyal dog who loves playing ball and sitting on your lap. He would also make a great guard dog as he is initially on alert with strangers. He never strays far from you and really just wants to be someone's companion.

Open Garden At Galston

The outstanding local garden "Elegans" at 21 Fishburn Road, Galston will be open on Saturday April 18th and Sunday April 19th to raise money for the Galston Community Health Centre. This will be the last opening of Elegans under the auspices of Open Gardens Australia as unfortunately this scheme will be closing down in June. The scheme has been responsible for thousands of garden openings throughout Australia over 27 years, raising large amounts of money for charity, and its demise is greatly regretted by garden enthusiasts.

Elegans is a unique park-like garden of 5 acres set around four lakes, with paths wandering off in all directions. It is really a Botanical Garden containing a very wide range of trees and shrubs, including camellias, conifers, maples and many other deciduous trees. It has been developed by Bill Fleming over 35 years as a labour of love. Beneath the trees are hundreds of succulents, bromeliads, begonias, ferns and other ground covers.

Every season is different at Elegans and it will give you lots of ideas on how to use foliage colour and texture in your own garden. You can bring your own picnic lunch and spend a relaxing hour or two wandering around this beautiful environment. Light refreshments are available. Open 10 am to 4.30 pm on both days, and admission is $10, under 18 years free.

Plan your Autumn Vegie Garden

Vegies To Sow In March:

• Winter Brassicas Kale, cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli can be sown now. Brussels sprout seedlings sown earlier from seed can be transplanted into the vegie patch. Most brassicas take a while to mature, but are well worth the wait. The fastest maturing brassicas include Cabbage Sugarloaf, which can be harvested in 8-12 weeks and baby leaves of kale will be ready for picking in around 7 weeks.

• Asian Greens Quicker to mature than traditional cabbages and cauliflower, there's Wombok or Chinese cabbage, white stem Bok Choy and quick growing Kailaan Chinese Broccoli. Try Yates Asian Stir Fry Mix, a blend of tasty Asian greens including Tatsoi, Chinese Broccoli and Chinese cabbage varieties, delicious in stir fries and young leaves can be harvested for salads.

• Peas Sow peas directly into damp soil in the garden, then withhold water until you see green seedlings popping up. Peas like an alkaline soil, so apply some Yates Hydrangea Pinking Liquid Lime & Dolomite prior to sowing. Dwarf Greenfeast is a heavy cropper which doesn't need staking. Sugar snap and Snow peas are delicious pod and all and will require a tripod of stakes to climb on.

• Broad beans Sow your broad beans directly in the garden in rows or clumps, and keep them moist but not overly wet. Coles Prolific is an abundant producer, and needs support for the tall stems.

• Winter Salads Some crisp, dark green slightly bitter salad leaves partner well with warming winter casseroles and pasta. Try tasty serrated leafed Mizuna and narrow dark green Mibuna which can be ready to harvest in just a few weeks from sowing. Repeat harvest regularly, the leaves have a mustardy flavor and taste best when young and tender.

• Spinach This delicious and nutritious leafy green enjoys the cooler weather. Winter Queen features large dark green leaves which mature in 8-10 weeks, but can be harvested when young for salads. Sow spinach seeds directly into the garden in clumps around 30cm - 40cm apart, then thin to the strongest seedlings in each group.

• Leeks and Spring Onion Perfect for warming winter soups, Welsh Wonder leeks can be sown directly into the garden in drills or raised in trays and transplanted when 10 cm high. They take around 12-20 weeks to mature, so sow some versatile Spring Onions in between which will be ready around 8 weeks.

Growing tips:

Feed vegies regularly during the growing season using Yates Thrive All Purpose Liquid Plant Food. It feeds through both the roots and the leaves as you water and encourages healthy green foliage and a strong root system. So start fertilising early to ensure you have a great crop and improved yields.

Check the seed packs for recommended spacings, and stagger plantings over several weeks to extend your harvest. Dewey nights and cooler conditions also means snails and slugs are about, so protect young plants using Yates Blitzem Snail & Slug Pellets.

Riverstone Festival 2015

The Riverstone Festival began in May 2000. It was planned as a "one off" occasion to give the people of Riverstone an activity in which the whole family could participate.

The Combined Churches of Riverstone, supported by the Riverstone Chamber of Commerce, other community organisations, particularly the Riverstone Neighbourhood Centre, and Blacktown City Council have seen the Festival continue to run successfully for the past 15 years.

After the first year an 11am Street Parade, showcasing local community groups and businesses, was added. With Riverstone celebrating its Bicentenary Year in 2010 Blacktown City Council, who had always been most supportive, stepped in to take charge of the onerous task of organising the Street Parade. They continue to do so.

The present Festival Committee is comprised of President Phyllis McAlpine (Uniting Church), Secretary Cheryl Ramsden, Treasurer Maria Long (St. John's Catholic Church), Publicity Officer Judith Lewis OAM (Life Anglican Church), Entertainment Organiser Allen Millard (Voice of Victory Church), Cathy Cummings and Steve Wilkins (Hawkesbury Radio).

The President, Publicity Officer and Entertainment Officer and Cathy Cumming have served the Committee in their respective roles since its inception. New Committee members will always be welcomed.

The Festival is being held in the surrounds of the Sam Lane community Complex on Saturday 16th May from 9am to 3pm with the Street Parade at 11am. Local schools are very supportive of the Festival, participating in the Street Parade, running stalls and joining in the on-stage entertainment.

Festival 2015 will have approximately 100 stalls comprising goods for sale, food and drink outlets and games and rides for children. At Information Stalls such as the Historical Society's, Riverstone memorabilia, Journals and other Riverstone books may be purchased and there is always help needed to identify people in old photographs.

On-stage entertainment throughout the day features local community groups and individual artists.

Festival information may be obtained from: PO Box 50, Riverstone, 2765. Email – info@riverstonefestival.com.au. Website – riverstonefestival.com.au. Phone: 4572 3271

The Tall Timbers' Times

The RDANSW State Mounted Games and Horse of the Year will again be at the Royal Easter Show on Tuesday 31st March. Unfortunately this year we won't have any riders or horses representing our centre however we will have many volunteers on the ground as organisers and stewards for the day. The rest of the crew will be at Tall Timbers with our regular riding program. This is the first time for Tall Timbers not to compete with many of our horses getting older and not comfortable with the competition environment.

During the April School holidays while our horses are having a rest our fundraising will be full steam ahead with Windsor Polo, Rouse Hill Bunnings BBQ, Collectors Plant Fair events. We are always after help for these events so contact the office if you can assist.

Our AGM is coming up on Wednesday 25th March at 7.15pm. We will have our Committee elections as well as a Guest Speaker, Tanya Savva who will speak about her daughter's journey at RDANSW Tall Timbers. The Committee are looking for new members to come on board, so if you are interested in joining nomination forms are available at the office.

Thank you to everyone who makes Tall Timbers the place to be, we are grateful for everyone's assistance and contributions.

Why Choose Binet Homes?

When my husband and I were looking to knock down and rebuild our home we spoke to a lot of builders. We also followed up and looked at some previous work by those builders including their display homes.

We were very impressed by the services offered by Binet Homes. They provided timely quotes, great initial designs and some great advice. Once the project started, everything ran really well. We were consulted along the way about how things were progressing - its so nice to know what stage we were up. The quality of workmanship was excellent and so was the care and attention to detail.

We moved into our new home on time and within budget - we were so pleased with that as we had heard some real horror stories from our friends. Moving in on time meant so much as it was very close to Christmas and we were entertaining our family in our new home! Thanks to Binet Homes our Christmas was wonderful and so many of our friends commented on the high standard of finishes and the quality of our new home.

Mention has been made in this column of the new "scanning" system of pricing at Jewels at Castle Hill, which is now in force at quite a number of supermarkets. It certainly has hastened the exit from the store, as the method is very much quicker than the former tills. Quite amazing really, as the scanner not only gives the price of each article, but also a visible readout, plus a printed one, describing each article. A few customers are wary of the new system, as they are doubtful of the accuracy of the coded prices, which are done at the H.Q. of each separate chain. Have noticed a number of customers writing the prices on each article as they remove it from the shelves into their shopping trolley. The system will apparently receive more support as queuing at the register for checkout is time consuming. Coles supermarket in Castle Towers had carpenters working on register exits last week, but was assured that it was only to make the aisles uniform in width. A portent for futude "scanning" machines?

With the Philippines constantly in the news at present, it is interesting to know that many sugar-cane farmers are changing from sugar growing to other means of livelihood. In one section of the islands many former sugar-cane growers are turning to prawn culture. Hundreds of hectares of ponds along the coast are being "prawn farmed". Already they are producing over 500 tons of prawns, which are estimated to be worth $16,000,000 annually. Japan is apparently taking the lion's share of these farmed prawns. The Philippine Government is encouraging this form of crustacean farming.

Dangers in pesticides in the food and fruit we eat is making more and more farmers show interest in growing organic produce. This is especially so in the U.S.A., where a great number of people are conscious of cholesterol and cancer dangers occurring from the foods they consume. In Australia, not sufficient care appears to be taken when farmers spray their crops with insecticides, many of them quite dangerous if the spray drops are inhaled. In the U.S.A. farmers when using dangerous sprays must place signs warning of their use, so that outsiders may avoid the area. To my knowledge, no such restriction is placed on our farmers. At present, with summer fruit in profusion in The Hills, sprays for fruit fly are being used in many places. The spray can drift quite a distance. Most of our local farmers do TAKE CARE when using organo-phosphate sprays and do MAKE SURE they follow implicitly instructions re the time of harvest after spray. However, there are some who are not quite so careful and therein lies the danger.

The U.S.A. appears to be way ahead of Aussie in many aspects of agriculture. Diet and health conscious Americans are turning more and more to natural foods, high in fibre and low in cholesterol. They are eating larger quantities of fresh fruit and veges and apparently so are Australians. More and more farmers are growing vegetables both here and in New Zealand, and consumers are demanding better and healthier varieties of fresh foods. Latest figures here, recently revealed, show that oats are an excellent source of fibre and oats as a cooked breakfast food is once again in big demand. Recall the porridge you ate when a youngster? Apparently our fore-fathers knew more than we gave them credit for about diet. It was not publicised as such in those early years, but apparently the knowledge was there. Fish is also a great source of cholesterol free oil, but with our large export trade for our best fish, our local prices are too high for many people. Radioactive atmosphere and acid rain is causing concern in most countries of Europe and both in New Zealand and here we are fortunate that our skies are comparatively clean.

Although not an avid TV watcher, I must say the programmes at this time of the year are abysmal! During this non-rating period the various Channels seem to use many second-rate American shows. It is very hard to catch the words the characters are saying as they are in American accents from different parts of that large country. Do any readers have the same difficulty? If I could only understand or hear the words, they would, perhaps, be a little better, but no one in our family can understand all the speech. Surely there must be some Australian shows they could use in programmes.

Ever heard of marion berries? Few people here have done so. The berries are a type of blackberry that is more elongated and can be twice the size of a good blackberry. They are grown, as far as I can ascertain, mostly in Oregon, U.S.A., and are exported to some Asian countries. If grown in this country, I don't know of them. Does anyone have any knowledge of this luscious berry? Another berry grown in the same State in America, is the "Tayberry", which is apparently a kind of red raspberry. Growers here may be interested in these new types of berry fruit. Blueberries seem to have caught the market here, but they are not to everyone's taste, and there must always be room for other varieties.

A post office without a mailbox? Are there many? One busy and rather prominent one is situated in the Carlingford shopping complex, on the ground floor, opposite McDonalds. The post box is outside the building, on the pavement, at least one hundred yards away! Not very convenient, although a sign in the P.O. DOES POINT to its direction.

Have you paid a visit to the Carlingford shopping complex since the additions and renovations have been made? Not yet completed, they will add many shops to those already trading. The large Woolworths supermarket in the building is currently being enlarged and modernised, but at time of writing was not open for business. Grace Bros store has also been enlarged and renovated. Parking at the complex is adequate, but exits all lead to a back street. An entrance is available from Pennington Hills Road, near the service station. Not as large or as "airy" as the Castle Towers Shopping Centre at Castle Hill, which, too, is to be greatly enlarged by the addition of another large department store in 1988. When completed late this year or early next year, the centre will cater for the needs of the most discriminating shopper.

In another section of this issue, readers will find an obituary for Doctor Ken Shallard, of Galston, who died last week, just one month prior to his 89th birthday. You may recall that early in the days of this column I unwittingly and prematurely wrote that he had died earlier. Very much alive then, the late Dr. Shallard, greatly enjoyed reading the news that he was dead! Now, sadly, it is true. This ebullient doctor lived a very full life and served the community with knidness and skill wherever he was in practice.

During my time at the local community radio station going back almost 20 years ago now. I met and made some good friends. The camaraderie that existed was second to none.

A woman working in my office read about the proposal for a community radio station in a local newspaper and mentioned it to me. Now having a background of working as a deejay (albeit only on a casual basis) back in the 1960s she thought that it would interest me, and interest me it certainly did. I made some enquiries and before you knew it I was in on the ground floor so to speak.

The station had still not got a licence to broadcast at the time, but I met some very good people, such as the late Jeff Ruitenbach, Moreena Hull and Brian Lankow. The Chairman was then one Jim Hanna. Before long some members suggested that perhaps I should stand for a Board position. Eventually I became a member of the Executive and then later Chairman. A few test broadcasts were made and eventually the station was given a licence to Broadcast through the local government areas of Parramatta, Holroyd and The Hills. A board under the Chairmanship of Garry Ridge was established (Garry went on to become head of the worldwide businesses of WD40 and Solvol Soaps). Ian Maurice telephoned me one day and said that he was interested in becoming involved and he and his mate Terry Gaynon became members of the Association. Terry Gaynon was later appointed Station Manager.

As a community station, membership was open to any and all. Members who wished to "go to air" were invited to submit programme proposals. Some members wanted technical experience or to gain experience in broadcast journalism. Others were content just to "help out" in other ways. I submitted a program proposal for a 50s & 60s music programme on a Friday night entitled "Juke Box Jive on 90.5" as that was the music that I enjoyed most. Although I am no longer involved with the station, I am pleased to say that the "Juke Box Jive" programme still goes to air and is one of the longest running programs on Alive 90.5.

But this column is not just about me and neither was the radio station. Now some of the others who are involved with the station include people such as Tony Jenkins who joined the station in 2007 I joined the station in 2007 mainly so that he could have input into the format. He served an apprenticeship as Secretary for two years and Chairman for three. Tony told me "I was the Juvenile Lead in Sound of Music with June Bronhill for three years. I was a principal singer in the TV show SunnySide Up for three years. I acted and sang in numerous shows at the Phillip Street Theatre. I met my wife, who is a dancer, and performed in and produced shows for cruise ships for ten years."

Another long time member since just after the station went to air is John Robb who says

"I joined 2CCR in 1993. I was playing in a band at the time and had recorded a single and it was extremely hard to be given any air play. I had a mate (Garry Ridge) who had a programme on 2CCR (now Alive 90.5) and he interviewed me and played our record. Upon telling him how hard it was for musos to get air play he said " why don't you join the station and put in a proposal for a programme, so I did. Rock n Roll Smorgasbord was born in 1993 and I have been doing the show ever since. Still playing local bands and artists that don't have a recording contract amongst music from bands/artists that listeners already know. I did not have any other radio experience. I started with just me as the presenter but there are 3 of us , Lord Pig, The King and me. Next month will be my 22nd year presenting the show and I still love it (obviously). We are one of the last shows, maybe the only show on radio that still gladly plays vinyl. Our policy is that if a new release is available on vinyl we buy the vinyl.

We do not play downloads unless the band/artist only has their song in that format."

A newer member of the group is Paul Mech who provides this insight to his background and program

"I started with Alive 90.5 in October 2012 after I moved to the region with my wife. I began in radio at the ripe old age of 12 in early 1993 in Richmond at a small radio station that no longer exists now; Noise FM.

I started at Hawkesbury Radio 89.9 in Windsor in March 1997 and did many roles there, including football commentating, presenting and voice over work. I was a director of the station from 2007 until I left the Hawkesbury in 2012.

I present "The Mechie Show" on Saturdays from 5-7pm on Alive 90.5. Mechie was the nickname I was given at Hawkesbury Radio and it stuck. My program tends to focus on popular tunes that don't get a lot of air play these days and more rare stuff. I do the "This Week in the 90's" segment where every hour, I pick a year from the 1990's for the week and play chart highlights or lowlights for that week and give a rundown of that weeks too 5. I tend to stick with more a rock format but will throw in a song of a different genre"

Now if you want to become involved in any way with Alive 90.5 then you can contact them on 9686 3888 or email to station.manager@alive905.com.au

NSW Police Force Report

An 85-year-old man - who has been missing for almost three days - has been found on a property in Sydney's south-west.

The man was last seen driving a ute on the Douglas Park property about 3.30pm on Thursday (12 March 2015). A search was initiated when he failed to return to the property by 6pm.

Since then, the search has involved local police, NSW Ambulance Paramedics, staff and residents of the property, assisted by the police Dog Squad, PoAir and NSW Ambulance helicopter.

They were also assisted by volunteers from the State Emergency Service (SES) and Rural Fire Service (RFS).

Shortly before 3pm on Sunday, 15 March, a team of RFS volunteers found the man sheltering under a rocky outcrop on the 400ha property, about 1km from where his ute was found.

The man was treated at the scene for the effects of dehydration and exposure. He was taken to Liverpool Hospital where he is being checked as a precaution. Police thank the volunteers, media and the local community for their assistance.

Aussie Pumps

POCKET ROCKET SUCCESS

Innovative Australian pump manufacturer, Australian Pump Industries, have reported a sales surge for its new 3,000 psi "Pocket Rocket" pressure cleaner.

The heavy duty Honda powered blaster has set a new standard both in Australia and internationally for innovation, durability and value for money! Launched last year, the new Aussie Scud AB30 blaster delivers 3,000 psi of pressure "whack" or 4,750 psi when coupled with Aussie's turbo lance.

"That turbo pressure is an indication of the EWP (Effective Working Pressure) when this mighty little machine is coupled with our Turbomaster lance" said Hamish Lorenz.

The Aussie Scud AB30 was an immediate success with farmers, tradesmen, earthmoving contractors and property maintenance specialists.

The machine features a 3,000 psi Bertolini heavy duty triplex pump specially adapted and designed to run from a Honda 6.5 hp petrol engine. That combination of Honda, the world's most popular petrol engine brand with Bertolini's quality triplex pump delivered more performance, faster cleaning times and better OH&S outcomes.

The engineering team put together the machine after a lot of consultation with user groups. They showed a strong preference for an Australian designed and built machine that could sell at a price not too far from the cheap Chinese imports available through many tool shops.

"We wanted to give the market more value for money, more punch, more efficiency and real cost savings at the same time" said Lorenz.

The Aussie AB30 "Pocket Rocket" is a real home grown Australian success story with international sales now chalking up export victories for this high pressure cleaning product.

Further information is available from Australian Pump distributors around the country and online at www.aussiepumps.com.au.

Aussie 'Pocket Rockets', with integrated hose reels, roll off the Castle Hill works production line.

Blood Revenge Book Launch

A book being launched at Hawkesbury Regional Museum in Windsor on Saturday, 28 March examines the first time that white men were held to account in a criminal court for killing Australian Aborigines.

Titled Blood Revenge - Murder on the Hawkesbury, it examines an incident that occurred in 1799, just 11 years after the New South Wales colony began and answers the disturbing question: Why were five men found guilty of killing two Aborigines – but never punished?

Author Lyn Stewart's interest in the story is more than academic: one of the murderers was her own ancestor.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614
