Treasure to be found in the Castle Hill

There's treasure to be found in the Castle Hill's ARV, Nuffield Village and it's not just the memories of residents.

It is the Ladies and Lavender Boutique, a tiny shop which trades pre-loved clothes waiting to be re-loved, at very low prices and new lavender products, at realistic prices.

Also see the pretty display of jewellery items. Everyone is welcome to browse, no-one is asked to buy.

We are very fortunate to receive many quality donations from ladies who have enjoyed the clothes' newness and passed them on to us in cared-for condition.

"Families donate remarkable things, so it's a great place to hunt for a lovely outfit, a stylish bag or a colourful scarf," said June Foxall, manager of the shop.

There has been a recycled ladies clothing shop on the Nuffield Village site for more than 30 years, entirely manned by volunteers (mainly residents). On the 3rd March, 2015 we moved into a new venue, purpose built with new fittings and change-room.

We are open Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday mornings from 9.30am until 11.30am and Thursday afternoon from 1.30pm until 3.30pm. Our shop is next-door to the Farrer Brown Court, Coffee Shop in Lloyd House which is very close to the entrance of the Anglican Retirement Village, David Road, Castle Hill... (almost opposite the corner of Tree Tops Road)

Australian Alpaca Week

Australian Alpaca Week returns due to popular demand! Those who visited an alpaca farm in 2014 enjoyed themselves so much that it is being done all over again! The week of May 2nd to 10th has been deemed "Australian Alpaca Week" in the Hawkesbury and Hills districts.

During this period, farms in the area will be hosting Open Farm days for the public to come and see these endearing creatures and their babies grazing in their paddocks, as well as in penned environments. Alpaca breeders love to talk about alpacas, so visitors are welcome to ask questions and learn what is involved in raising and managing these animals, whether as herd guards, pets or for breeding. Entry is free.

Alpacas are recognised as environmentally friendly livestock. With their soft-padded feet, they are very kind to fragile Australian soils as well as being hardy and adaptable to most conditions. Alpacas are easy to manage and in addition to producing a soft-handling fleece are also extremely appealing animals to own. Most people who start out with a couple of alpacas, even as grass-eaters, are soon on the lookout for a few more to complement their herd. Alpacas are farmed primarily for their fleece and many farms will have raw fleece, spun wool for knitting and finished garments on display and for sale. The fibre is in high demand overseas and is also very popular with hand spinners. The great range of natural colours means that dyeing is unnecessary, leaving the fibre with its original silky handle.

People come along for many reasons, some for a day out with the family, and others who are thinking of owning their own alpacas. Whatever the reason for visiting, the opportunity to meet the animals and chat with their owners, many of whom have been involved in the industry for 15-20 years, is very beneficial.

More information on alpacas can be found at www.alpaca.asn.au. For more local information, contact the regional secretary on 9653 2277 or alpacas@tpg.com.au

Drug Supply Arrest

Proactive Crime Team Police from Hawkesbury LAC arrested a 48 year old South Windsor man just after 7pm on Tuesday 14th April 2015 in Macquarie Park, Windsor for alleged supply of cannabis to a minor.

Police will allege the 48 year old supplied an amount of cannabis to a 15 year old female before being arrested by Police. A search of the offender's belongings located individually packaged resealable bags and over half a kilo of cannabis.

The male was taken to Windsor Police Station and later charged with Supply Prohibited Drug and Supply Prohibited Drug to Child. The male will appear before Windsor Local Court in May.

Domestic Violence in the Hawkesbury

A 37 yr old male from Richmond has been charged with 3x breach Apprehended Domestic Violence Order (ADVO) over the weekend. The male is currently named as the defendant in an enforceable ADVO protecting the victim.

On Friday the 10th of February 2015 Police will allege the male attended a residence in Kurrajong Heights knowing the victim was at the location. The male became abusive towards the victim and later stole her vehicle from outside the home. The males behaviour prompted another occupant of the home to call 000.

Police arrived at the home a short time later and spoke with the victim and other people present. Police attended the males home in Richmond where he was arrested and conveyed to Windsor Police Station. The male was charged with the breaches and bail refused by police. The male appeared before Parramatta bail court on Saturday the 11th of April 2012 where he was again refused bail to appear before Windsor Local Court in July 2015.

Council Signs Partnership Agreement with WSI TAFE for Events Interns

The Hills Shire Council has signed an agreement with the Western Sydney Institute of TAFE that will see Diploma of Events students complete internships at Council every semester.

Council has a very successful volunteer program, with more than 900 volunteers contributing to the community. The partnership with the Western Sydney Institute of TAFE addresses a new need and pillar of opportunity - the education and up skilling needs of our community.

Hills Shire Mayor Cllr Andrew Jefferies said the partnership helps students get hands-on experience for putting on events of all sizes.

"The events world is very competitive and cut throat and securing an internship can often prove to be extremely difficult," Mayor Jefferies said.

Council's focus on growing the visitor economy is a key driver of major events.

Residents Encouraged to Knock Down and Rebuild with $2000 Rebate

Council's Knock Down and Rebuild Scheme is now up and running and property owners can apply for a $2000 rebate.

Hills Shire Mayor Cllr Andrew Jefferies said the scheme was aimed at rejuvenating low density housing estates across the Hills' more established suburbs.

Residents are eligible for the rebate if they spend more than $250,000 on upgrading their home, with the rebate to go towards landscaping.

Residents who want to find out more about the scheme can find more information at www.thehills.nsw.gov.au or by calling 9843 0555.

Hills Volunteers Asked To Knock For Salvos During Red Shield Appeal

Having a Salvos volunteer knock on your door during the Red Shield Appeal has become an annual tradition and Hills Shire Mayor Cllr Andrew Jefferies is calling on residents to once again take part.

"The Salvation Army do amazing work in the community. Whether it's providing support through homelessness services, women and children services, emergency welfare, financial counselling and so much more," Mayor Jefferies said.

Salvation Army spokesman Steve Burfield said the Salvos were thankful for the generosity of Australians over the last 50 years.

To volunteer call 13 SALVOS (13 72 58) or register online at salvos.org.au/volunteer. You can donate to the Red Shield Appeal by calling 13 SALVOS (13 72 58), online at salvos.org.au, in person at any Westpac branch.

with Redden Drive, Hezlett Road and Foxall Road.

The first of these temporary roundabouts at Redden Drive will be operating by this weekend, with the Hezlett Road temporary roundabout to follow shortly after. These temporary roundabouts will improve safety at the intersections throughout the remainder of the upgrade works.

Hills Shire Mayor Cllr Andrew Jefferies said that the upgrade and widening of Samantha Riley Drive was one of the largest ever capital investments made to a local Council road project.

"This upgrade will better equip Samantha Riley Drive for the increasing number of motorists who use this road now and in the future," Mayor Jefferies said.

"It is also one of the most complex and complicated road projects we've taken on and we're working with a range of other government agencies such as Sydney Water, Endeavour Energy, AGL gas, Telstra and Optus to shift and move pipes and cabling."

Some of the works completed or currently underway include the relocation of gas and water mains along with extensive design work.

"This project will take some time, so I want to thank residents and motorists for their patience and I can guarantee that we are doing everything possible to work quickly as we understand how difficult it is in that area particularly during morning and afternoon peak trips."

Grappling is an unfamiliar field for some kids

Being pushed down by another kid or just a simple fall down can be scary for some children.

New students should learn how to fall down safely first. In our Grappling for Children program we teach these through a series of games we have. This way they are having fun and they learn too.

Takedown is one of the main subjects of Grappling for Children. Teaching the takedown techniques would be easier once the children learn the falling techniques.

A good self defence program teaches how to diffuse situations, only resorting to physical defence as a last resort. Children should learn how to protect themselves from punches, kicks and throws, but should always be taught to try other possible methods to prevent a fight. A good self defence program should teach the children to detect and prevent situations from escalating to violence.

Children should be taught different methods such as walking away from a bully, telling their parents and teachers about their issues and verbally forcing the bully to back down to name a few. Kids must also be encouraged to develop their confidence – not because they practice martial arts, but rather as a way of accepting themselves.

Parents should role play a bullying scenario with their children to prepare them for real situations.

The Hawkesbury Events Facebook page is designed to facilitate a vibrant events culture within the Hawkesbury local government area, fostering and supporting event organisers. It also aims to encourage the involvement of local residents in events that assist in promoting positive interaction, cultural activity and strong community identity.

The Mayor of Hawkesbury, Councillor Kim Ford is excited about the new Facebook page. "We invite all community members to use the page as a platform to promote events they are holding and also to be informed about what is happening in the Hawkesbury."

"This page is not only great for our local community to stay up to date but also to promote all the great things happening in the Hawkesbury to our surrounding communities and encourage them to come to the area," he added.

There are guidelines for events being promoted on the Hawkesbury Events Facebook page which can be viewed on the 'About' tab.

Event Organisers can private message on Facebook or email events@hawkesbury.nsw.gov.au with details and an image of their event to be posted on the Hawkesbury Events Facebook page.

Event Organiser and participants are also encouraged to use #hawkesburyevents on their Facebook, Instagram and Twitter accounts.

Centenary of ANZAC - Special Edition

The E-Newsletter is usually sent out once a month, but in certain circumstances there are important events with specific time frames that I need to highlight in our community.

This year our Nation will commemorate one of our most important historical events, the Centenary of ANZAC. The ANZAC legend has shaped our nation like no other event before it or since. One hundred years is a vital occasion to pass on the significance of remembering all of our brave servicemen and women, of then and now to today's generations.

For it is those who made the ultimate sacrifice, who have made Australia the great, free nation that it is today. We owe it to those who went before to stop, remember and say thank you for another one hundred years. I would like to express my appreciation to the Centenary of ANZAC Hills Community Committee whose dedication to this cause has been unwavering, in particular, the President Col. Ret. Donald Tait OAM, for his boundless determination.

Through all of us the ANZAC legacy will live on.

Regards,

Alex

SHOWTIME

For its May 2015 production, Dural Musical Society has chosen "West Side Story". This is an exceptional musical based on a conception of Jerome Robbins, with book by Arthur Laurents, music by Leonard Bernstein, and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim. When it was first directed and choreographed by Jerome Robbins in 1957 it was recognised as being the modern day version of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. Set on the West Side of New York City, this musical picks up on the passion and aggression of two gangs, the Jets and the Sharks, as they try to take control of their neighbourhood. In this environment a lifetime can last forty-eight hours, and that is the timespan of this story – a story that revolves around the two gangs and the 'love at first sight' relationship between Maria and Tony, who unfortunately come from opposite sides of the street. While the show was 'modern' in the late fifties, the story rings just as true today - covering themes such as peer group pressure, gang behaviour, racial prejudice, young love, and the misguided actions of youth who only see violence as a means to an end. This is a show that has a great music score and, through its cleverly structured story, takes you to a place that most of us don't want our young adults to experience.

"West Side Story" is produced by the same team that brought the highly successful "Urinetown" to the stage last year. Direction is by Eddie Bruce, who in his youth portrayed Riff, the leader of the Jets. It is a favourite of his, and as he explains, "While there are strong themes throughout the show, there is also a level of humour that will provide some light relief to the audiences". Choreography is by Kate O'Neill, who always delights audiences with her routines, and this show is no exception – assisted by her sister Chrissie, they demand the exuberance you would expect to see in a group of angry, passionate youths. Musical Direction is by Leo Dent who started working on the music well before the show was cast. He has assembled a larger ensemble than usual for this production, recognising the importance of key instruments in reproducing the magic of Leonard Bernstein's music. Returning to the society following an extensive break after directing "Guys and Dolls", is Phil O'Connor, who is both choreographing the fight sequences and performing the role of the Jets leader, Riff.

New to the society, Rewi Pakinga brings his excellent voice to the role of

Dural Musical Society "West Side Story"

Tony, the young man with a dream that seems to be coming true when he meets Maria, played by Stephanie Quaglia. Two other talented newcomers to DMS are Adam Garden and Sarah Aylen who play Maria's protective brother Bernardo, and his enticing girlfriend Anita. Emily Daniel is back treading the DMS boards in the key role of Anybodys, a tomboy trying to join the Jets. Look out for the cameo 'adult' roles from some of the DMS stalwarts – Andrew McLean as Lieutenant Schrank, Ben-Wilson-Hill as Officer Krupke, and Ian McLean as Doc.

For the first time, Dural Musical Society are making use of a Thrust Stage – taking the performers to the audience who will be sitting on three sides of the performing space. Rather than the usual stylised reproduction of a show where the audience face the stage, the production team are taking the aggression of the gangs, and the passion of the dancing into the audience.

Why not arrange a group of friends (your own special 'gang') to come along to an evening performance, or perhaps a Sunday matinee, to see and feel "West Side Story" at the Dural Soldiers Memorial Hall. Please book as the use of a Thrust Stage limits the size of the audience. You may like to try our Pre-Show Dining Package which includes a meal at 42 Bannerman Trattoria E Bar before the show, and your reserved seat for the performance.

WOMEN'S PART — AUSTRALIANS IN ENGLAND AND INDIA. || The Sydney Mail, April 12, 1916—15

400,000 Women to Work on the Land.

HERE is a recruit enlisted by the National Land Council off to work at a farm in Norfolk. She and thousands of others—the number is given as 400,000—have been enlisted to take the place of men called to the trenches.—Central Press.

DESCRIBING the work of women engaged in munition work in England, a writer says:—In the case of one firm at least, a regular village colony has been made. Hostel-huts have been built three miles away from the factory, to which the girls and women journey daily by means of a light railway. The huts are charming in construction. They are two storeys high, and their brown exteriors have a quaint, cosy look which is a capital index to the comfort within. There are jolly little cubicles, twenty-three in all to each hut. Best of all, there are excellent bathrooms for the girls, who, when they doff their overalls, are eager to revel in the hot water.

Central News.

A Concert at the Anzac Buffet in London.

HERE we see Miss Roma May, who is described as a charming and very popular young Australian soprano, singing at a concert given by her to cheer her wounded countrymen. Ever since the war Miss May has been working hard in the interests of Australian and New Zealand wounded. At the Anzac Buffet she helps to serve them with refreshments, and between cups of tea sings to them in a manner which is very much appreciated. In other directions Miss May has done good war work by arranging for the distribution in England of parcels of clothing sent from Australia and Tasmania among the Belgian refugees and others.

A Group of Wounded Australians and New Zealanders.

THEY are patients at the Kingston-on-Thames Hospital, where they are excellently attended to. Despite their injuries they are remarkably cheerful, the one thought of all being to get well and back to the front. Some little time ago one heard complaints concerning the strict hospital regulations, which were not acceptable to the Anzacs; but the difficulties appear now to have been satisfactorily overcome, and matters are running very smoothly.

Another of the 400,000.

THIS picture shows the neat and serviceable uniform worn by the members of the Women's Army of 400,000 enlisted for work on the land. Many thousands of women are also engaged in making munitions at factories in various parts of the United Kingdom.—Central Press.

GOOD food is supplied to them by the colony staff. This, of course, they must carry with them to the factory, as once inside the factory no woman can leave until her day's work is over. The food thus carried in the basket is supplemented by hot coffee obtained at the works' canteen, where, of course, lighter foods are always available. Food, too, can be warmed at the dining-rooms of the works. How does the munition worker live? Well, to tell the truth she lives by working, and she lives to do real, good work, and when she is not working she is generally sleeping. Sleep she must, soundly and regularly, for she works long hours very often. Twelve hours is her shift frequently.

AUSTRALIAN SOLDIERS IN INDIA.

THIS photograph comes to us from Bombay, showing that certain of our troops have been sent to India. No information is given as to the composition of the group, but they appear to be Army Service Corps men, and the badges worn show that they include signallers and wireless operators. Australians are now serving in various theatres of war. Though nothing official is obtainable on the point, it is commonly reported that many of our troops have recently gone from Egypt to France.

As one goes through life, what your mind's eye see and what you actually see do not always agree. My mind still thinks that I have dark hair and no visible wrinkling of the skin. What my eyes tell me when I look into the mirror does not agree. When did my hair get so white and where did those spots and wrinkles come from. Off course I can blame my wife, after all when we were married my hair was much darker and my skin much smoother. It is only since marriage that my hair has turned white etc. anyway enough of that.

Memories are what I am writing about. I remember as a youngster some of the things I have done. Remember playing soldiers with a dustbin lid as a shield (for those too young to remember dustbins, they were an earlier form of garbage bin made of metal). I can recall playing on a pile of dirt that had been left behind by builders, in a paddock. There were quite a few of us boys. I stood at the top of the pile with my trusty shield and waving a piece of wood as a sword. I must say that we were playing as medieval soldiers and not as WW2 soldiers.

For some effect I had grabbed my father's WW2 medals and had pinned them onto my shirt. Don't really know why, as medieval soldiers did not wear medals, but I guess that I thought I would look cool and perhaps more militaristic with medals. Anyway as a child of nine or ten years who cared about what was correct or not in a game of play. Fun was the name of the game. Fun it was until when I got home I had found that one of my father's medals was missing. My father had the Africa Star, the 1939-45 Star, and also the Italy Star having served in North Africa, Palestine and Italy during the war, but the large round Silver one with the Kings head (The British 1939-1945 War medal) on it was missing. Woe is me I thought, but thankfully my father did not punish me for the loss but I did end up replacing it some years later after his death and handing it together with the "Star" medals to his eldest male grandchild with whom they remain still today.

With ANZAC day coming up and the Centenary of ANZAC this year, military history and the like will be quite dominant in the media. Unfortunately my father passed away more than 20 years ago, so I am unable to talk to him about his experiences during WW2 but I guess that as he did not speak much of his experiences when alive, then perhaps it was not pleasant. I often think that children and teens have a romanticised view of military life and war. I guess that as a nine or ten year old child with a dustbin lid and a stick that would have been my view also at the time.

As I said my father had the Africa Star as one of his campaign medals. During his period in North Africa he spent time at Tobruk. Undoubtedly he would have met some

Australian soldiers whilst there and I wonder if that was one of the reasons he decided to emigrate with his young family to Australia a little more than a decade later

Now what of our other childhood memories? Building a billy cart with ball bearing wheels or the wheels from an old pram. How about rolling down a steep driveway or a hilly road with no crash helmet, brakes or restraints on the billy cart? How many of you would have built a billy cart in your father's shed with the help of your mates or perhaps your dad? We lived to tell the tale of the cart turning over as we went around a corner or bend. All you had for steering the cart was your feet and a piece of rope. Your brakes consisting of your feet in whatever footwear you were wearing at the time. Perhaps you may have had a mate joining you in the billy cart and you would both fall out as you went head over heels (there are other ways I could describe that, but I think you get the picture). We would be lucky to escape with just a few scratches and bruises. Do kids of today still build billy carts I wonder? Or are they mollycoddled and purchase ready built ones? Much of the fun of being a child is actually building something yourself. You develop skills and knowledge that you may not ever known you had. When I was very young we were living in the UK and it would often snow on the hills surrounding the town where I lived. Instead of a billy cart, I can remember my father who was a welder at the time making a steel sled for me in which I could pull it to the top of the hill, where I would push it and then run and sit on it and slide down on the snow. For some reason or other, I found that the sled always wanted to turn to the left instead of going straight. Perhaps it was me, maybe I was not sitting on it correctly, or perhaps my father may have made some error when building it. Whatever, it was still fun and a great time was had.

So why am I suddenly reminiscing about my father who has been gone for so long? Is it because his birthday or the fact that ANZAC day is drawing closer or am I just getting older and see him more often as I look into the mirror?

But we do see ourselves as being much younger looking in our minds eye don't we? We can often regret not asking our parents of their experiences in life. After they have gone it is too late, to ask. In my various groups and pages that I run on Facebook, so many say that they had wished that they had asked more questions of their parents. Found out more about the family and what they did and how they lived or where they originated from. Our time on this planet is limited and we do not always see how old we are. Our kids are now into their 40s and I think of them as being in their early 30s, and yet I still think of myself as being just a little past fifty in my mind but in reality I could add another 20 years on and be much closer to my true age.

So readers jot down those memories for your kids and whilst doing so, why not send a copy along to us for publication in this great little magazine. I would love to hear your memories as you relive your life's experiences.

Stories of your memories can be sent to PO Box 1278, Baulkham Hills NSW 1755 or emailed to metropoll@optusnet.com.au. You are also welcome to share your memories in the "Hills District Memories" group on Facebook where almost 1000 members share there memories and photos.

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by David Elliott, Member for Baulkham Hills

BOOST LOCAL HERITAGE PROTECTION

$28.5 million in new heritage funding is now available from the NSW Government, for local residents to put the heritage treasures of Baulkham Hills forward for support.

Under the new Heritage Near Me initiative, the NSW Government will fund a new Heritage Roadshow team of experts and a series of grants: the Heritage Activation Grants Program; the Local Heritage Community and Local Government Grants Program and Heritage Green Energy Grants Program.

As Patron of The Hills District Historical Society, I am encouraging members of our local community to apply for grant funding under this new initiative and to call for a visit to Baulkham Hills from the new Heritage Roadshow team so we can further discover and celebrate the links to our past.

The Heritage Roadshow team will be made up of eight specialists who will visit local areas to record historical information, support the community to protect important places and help local councils improve skills among their heritage staff.

The team will work with local communities by assisting with technical advice; leveraging public and private investment in heritage items; and assisting local councils to identify, manage and protect local heritage.

The Office of Environment and Heritage will work with local councils and communities to determine the best and most effective method to make contact with the Heritage Roadshow team and access their expertise. The team is expected to become active later this year.

The new Heritage Activation Grants Program will support heritage asset owners such as local councils to reactivate heritage spaces and precincts through works to support public access, ongoing heritage activities and safety improvements.

There will be funding for minor conservation works and to help provide expert technical advice and service through the Local Heritage Community and Local Government Grants Program, which will help enhance local heritage assets.

The Heritage Green Energy Grants Program will support energy efficiency upgrades for businesses using heritage listed buildings.

Members of our local community will be able to apply for these grant programs when they come online next year.

HEY TOSSER! MAKING NSW LEAST LITTERED STATE

The next phase of the NSW Government's Hey Tosser! anti-littering campaign has arrived.

The campaign involves TV commercials, images and slogans focusing on the public shame of being caught littering.

I am pleased the NSW Government has launched this campaign to help our local community crack down on litterbugs.

This campaign sends a clear message that littering is unacceptable, having a negative impact on the community and the environment.

Social research shows people are less likely to litter if they think someone is watching, and that's what this campaign focuses on.

Changing attitudes and behaviours towards littering will help us achieve our aim to be the least littered state per capita in Australia.

In 2011 the estimated cost of litter prevention and litter clean-up services nationally was $300-$350 million a year.

In NSW, cigarette butts are the most commonly littered item, making up 35 per cent of all litter. Across Australia 7.2 billion cigarette butts are estimated to be littered each year.

The campaign will complement other NSW Government initiatives including our plan to introduce a container deposit scheme, fines for littering from motor vehicles based on public reports and grants to local councils and community groups to tackle litter from 2013 until 2017.

To view more information visit www.epa.nsw.gov.au/heytosser To report littering from a vehicle visit www.epa.nsw.gov.au/reportlitter or download the Report to EPA mobile app.

LOCAL VISUAL ARTISTS CAN APPLY FOR NSW GOVERNMENT FELLOWSHIP

Local visual artists embarking on their careers can apply for a $30,000 NSW Government Visual Arts Fellowship.

The NSW Liberals & Nationals Government is providing this funding as part of its commitment to supporting the professional development of artists in our State.

The fellowship is open to visual artists at the beginning of their careers and will support a self-directed program of professional development that might include travel, a mentorship or internship, residencies, courses, workshops, research or the creation of new work.

This is an excellent opportunity for emerging visual artists to gain recognition for their work, exhibit in an internationally recognised arts centre, and receive support for their professional development.

I encourage visual artists from across Baulkham Hills to apply for this fellowship.

A shortlist of up to 12 artists will be selected by an independent panel of peers managed by Arts NSW. The artists' works will be exhibited at Artspace, Sydney from 12 November to 18 December 2015.

Applications for the NSW Visual Arts Fellowship (Emerging) close on 18 May, 2015 with the successful candidate expected to be announced at the exhibition opening.

For more information and to apply, visit www.arts.nsw.gov.au or www.artspace.org.au

ELECTION RESULT A BOOST FOR BAULKHAM HILLS

I was thrilled and humbled to be returned by the community as the Member for Baulkham Hills and I thank you for your support.

Since the election the office has undergone considerable change, not the least of which has been caused by my elevation to the ranks of the Ministry, the Premier entrusting me with the portfolios of Corrections, Emergency Services and Veterans Affairs.

While I am delighted to have been promoted into the Ministry, the electorate of Baulkham Hills will always remain my first priority and I look forward to continuing to serve the people of Baulkham Hills over the next four years.

David Elliott MP
STATE MEMBER FOR BAULKHAM HILLS

Please contact me if you have concerns or need help relating to

- Roads and transport services
- Hospital waiting lists and health services
- Education and school facilities
- Crime and safety concerns

DCH ANIMAL ADOPTIONS

Archie is large size boy who is looking for a new home with an experienced dog owner used to large dogs. He is fairly active and typical of the breeds we suspect are in him (ie Dane and hound). Archie currently lives with another dog and would enjoy the company of another playful dog. He can be picky about who he is friends with when out and about at dog parks so he might not be suitable for someone after an easy going dog to socialise with lots of different dogs. Archie is friendly, sooky, and quite adorable. He can be bouncy and excitable with his family and once he gets to know you, but with strangers he's fairly indifferent. Archie is used to living with cats and enjoys a playful chasing game with them. He is also used to living with a baby and has proved himself very good around them, although due to his large size he could easily knock over a small child without meaning to. Archie has been in foster case since 14 April 2015, for 2 days

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614

Aussie Pumps

AUSSIE CLEARS DECKS

A huge range of top quality Aussie Pump products have been heavily discounted to country buyers this month. Aussie Pump say this as part of a program to clear ex field day, ex demo and surplus stock before 30th April.

Many of the products are discounted up to 50% as the company prepares to launch new models for the coming season. The sale includes Honda self priming pumps, high pressure water blasters and heavy duty industrial vacuum cleaners.

"Product development has lead to new designs that are being released progressively over the next two to three months," said Product Development Manager, Brad Farrugia. "That's good news for farmers as we are under pressure to clear to end of line units from our shelves and dealer stocks to make way for the new models," he said.

The sale includes heavy duty Honda powered pro series water blasters with pressures up to 4,000 psi, suitable for any tough contractor cleaning style job. "The Aussie Ultra delivers a whopping 6,500 psi EWP and this month comes with a free turbo as well as a discounted price that will save farmers up to $2,000!" said Farrugia.

The contractor style blasters all come with robust one piece welded steel galvanised frames, big off road tyres and heavy duty top quality accessories. All the machines feature free ASP kit (Aussie Safety Protection) to protect both the machine and the operator.

The Ultra, a 20HP Honda powered blaster, sometimes nicknamed the 'Lethal Weapon', is being supplied with a free heavy duty turbo lance. The turbo boasts the effective working pressure to 6,500 psi and is valued at $328 and is absolutely free for orders placed in April.

Transfer pumps, high pressure fire pumps and even the revolutionary Aussie 'Smart' pumps are available with top quality Honda petrol and Yanmar diesel engine. Smart pumps feature a 30% glass filled polyester pump body. They handle agricultural chemical, fertiliser, industrial waste, salt water, diesel fuel and a huge range of other corrosive or potentially damaging chemicals. Prices are sharply reduced on key models while the company clears the decks!

Big 75 litre industrial wet/dry vacuum cleaners, all covered by an exclusive five year warranty, are also included in the clearance. These big suckers are ideal for farm workshops, machinery shed clean up and are suitable for jobs that are as diverse as clearing workshop spills or leftover grain or debris from a combine harvester.

"This is a fabulous opportunity for farmers to 'clean up' big time," said Farrugia. "We even have big flow pressure cleaners suitable for piggeries, chicken sheds and similar applications on special! Some of the items in the sale are one offs, leftovers from prototype development or ex demo or field day stock. It's a great chance for the man on the land to make huge savings," he said.

Further information and a handy dealer locator is available on the Aussie Pump website (www.aussiepumps.com.au). Further information including a free catalogue data, specifications and sale info is available by calling Aussie Pumps on 02 8865 3500.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614
