Wanting to expand the services provided by Hear-Clear, Katie sought out a highly skilled clinician. She is delighted that Bruce Allen has joined her team. An audiologist with over 30 years of experience and formerly of Allen-Fisher Acoustics, Bruce is working at the Dural clinic.

Hearing clearer is closer than you think by Jenny Fisher

Tired of asking your loved ones to repeat themselves? Feeling isolated in social gatherings? It's time to take action as your hearing solution is right on your doorstep. Hear-Clear Australia has opened its doors in Dural and Galston.

Katie Rahman who works at Galston, is a fully qualified audiometrist and is passionate about making a difference in people's lives. "I love it when people come back to me after wearing hearing aids for a while and tell me all the things that they can now hear."

Bruce has expertise in trouble-shooting difficult clinical issues. "Many people battle on with hearing aids that aren't working well for them. I love helping them get the most out of their current hearing aids or fitting them with something new that gets them hearing again."

Both Katie and Bruce are accredited to fit hearing aids under the government scheme as well as self-funded adults. "We look forward to making a difference in the hearing life of people in Galston and Dural."

Community Services at Galston will Continue

The Galston community has been very concerned regarding the recent changes to community services. Neighbour Aid services have operated in the Galston Community for over 20 years. Recent changes by the government for community services have been of concern for many residents.

Services for transport assistance, Meals on Wheels and social support will all continue. KNC is a not for profit organisation that has supplied social support services for the aged since 1979 had been named by the Department of Social services as the new provider. KNC's manager Tricia Meers and Neighbour Aid Manager Anne Brammage are delighted to be able to work alongside Northern Sydney Area Health staff in Galston.

Galston residents who help to get to appointments with your local Doctor, the physio or rehabilitation can contact

KNC - Galston at the Galston Community Health Centre for details of our extended social support and transport services that are available.

Many community members are finding the changes in aged care confusing and need assistance finding enablement programs or locating some help at home. KNC - Galston is your link to help find services. Our coordinators can help simplify the process for you by linking you with services in the area.

KNC-Galston Volunteers Needed

Wondering if you can make a difference in your community?

Do you like meeting people from all walks of life?

Do you have a spare hour or two in your week to help someone in your community?

If you can answer yes to even one of these questions – consider joining the KNC - Galston team at the Galston Community Health Centre.

Volunteering opportunities are available in a variety of ways

- Help older community members to travel to appointments with their local doctor, the physio or rehabilitation.
- Companionship – just a friendly phone call once a week to say hello and chat to an older community member who is not able to get out and about
- Help with the Meals on Wheels lunch days at the Centre
- Do you have computer skills? Those skills are needed to help community members learn the basics of how to use a computer, tablet or email.

- Outings – join us as a volunteer on one of our outings with our clients. Cruise the Hawksbury or lunch at the Kokoda Memorial at Homebush or simply enjoy fish and chips at Palm Beach.

If your preference is more behind the scenes work such as Data entry, catering, mail outs – there is an opportunity for everyone. For further information on how you can help contact a KNC – Galston coordinator at the

Box Hill Contributions Plan Makes Sense Out Of Dollars

Hills Shire Mayor, Councillor Andrew Jefferies, has commended a new contributions plan for Box Hill, calling it a win for future residents with funding allocated to provide more parks, playgrounds, open space and jobs close to home.

In response to recent changes to the Box Hill Precinct Plan that included improved opportunities for employment, an extra 290 homes and allocation of an additional 3.2 hectares of land for open space, a new plan to collect and allocate contributions from developers has been created.

Contributions Plan No. 15 – Box Hill Precinct is currently on public exhibition and residents are encouraged to view the plan and have their say.

Residents can view the Draft Amendments to Contributions Plan No. 15 – Box Hill Precinct (FP216) on Council's website – by clicking on 'Major Plans on Exhibition' in the Quick Links section of the home page.

Closing date for submissions is Friday 24 April 2015. Following public exhibition, the new plan will be sent to the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal for endorsement.

Details of events being held can be registered online on Council's website, www.hawkesbury.nsw.gov.au, by following the links on the homepage. Forms must be submitted by specified dates to be included in print materials.

Poppies pop up at Hills Shire Libraries to commemorate Centenary of ANZAC

Poppies have been popping up at the entries to the Hills Shire libraries to commemorate the Centenary of ANZAC and launch a program of community activities.

Hills Shire Mayor, Andrew Jefferies, visited Carlingford Library to inspect the poppy decals growing on the front doors.

"Council acknowledges the supreme sacrifice the ANZACs made for us," Mayor Jefferies said.

"In this special commemorative year, we are supporting Centenary of ANZAC events by partnering with the Castle Hill RSL and also by getting our community involved through our library activities."

"It is important that we never forget what our diggers did for us and the extreme hardship they endured."

The poppy is a significant symbol of wartime. The Flanders Poppy has long been part of Remembrance Day and is also increasingly being used as part of ANZAC day observances signifying the sacrifice of shed blood.

Open Garden At Galston

The outstanding local garden "Elegans" at 21 Fishburn Road, Galston will be open on Saturday April 18th and Sunday April 19th to raise money for the Galston Community Health Centre. This will be the last opening of Elegans under the auspices of Open Gardens Australia as unfortunately this scheme will be closing down in June. The scheme has been responsible for thousands of garden openings throughout Australia over 27 years, raising large amounts of money for charity, and its demise is greatly regretted by garden enthusiasts.

Every season is different at Elegans and it will give you lots of ideas on how to use foliage colour and texture in your own garden. You can bring your own picnic lunch and spend a relaxing hour or two wandering around this beautiful environment. Light refreshments are available. ## Midsomer Murders: The Dagger Club Friday, 10 April 2015 - 8:30pm New Series

#ourABC

Midsomer Murders returns with four new episodes in the 17th season.

DCI Barnaby and DS Nelson investigate when artist Suzie Colebrook is electrocuted by a booby-trapped roulette wheel she received in the post after a manuscript is stolen from her house.

She was the executor of crime writer George Summersbee's estate, and her murder comes as his newly discovered book is about to be unveiled. Her publisher husband Niall seems more concerned about the stolen manuscript than her murder.

There is tension between George's daughter Bella, the sole beneficiary of his estate, and her mother Jeanie. In another complication Bella's partner Rob is having money troubles. Meanwhile, Maggie Markham is busy promoting her husband Nick Summersbee's memoirs about his famous brother.

Nelson discovers the electrocution mirrors a plotline in George's first novel 'The Wheels of Justice', except it describes two roulette wheels being sent.

And there are others who would love to get their hands on the manuscript: obsessive fan Curtis Braylesford, and big time publisher Miles Rattigan. Plus, Maggie claims Jeanie hated Suzie over an affair she had with George.

A second deadly wheel is traced to Cecilie Peterson 30 miles away, but the police arrive too late. Barnaby spots Suzie's original artwork for 'The Wheels of Justice' on the wall. And phone records reveal both victims knew Bella.

Forensics prove Suzie's break-in was staged, and Bella reveals Suzie wanted Miles to publish the book rather than Niall, giving the dead woman's husband motive to steal it and kill her. But then Niall is murdered...

Jesus: Rise To Power Sunday, 5 April - 8.30pm New Series Premiere

In a landmark three-part series, Dr Michael Scott sets out across the historic landscapes of the ancient world to discover how and Christianity becomes the official religion of the Roman Empire.

In less than four centuries, the little-known cult of Jesus rises from a disparate collection of beliefs that do not even go by the name of Christianity, into a dynamic, coherent force that dominates the mighty Roman Empire.

This extraordinary story is an epic human drama filled with suspense, political intrigue, brutal religious persecution, and sheer luck.

Episode One: Messiahs

Nominated for Best Documentary Academy Award in 2015, the documentary recounts the chaotic final days of the Vietnam War as the North Vietnamese Army closed in on Saigon. With incredible witness testimony, this is the thrilling narrative of what happened when the wheels fell off the US strategy in Vietnam.

ABC 2 Tattoo Tales Wednesday, 8 April 2015 9:40pm

Fixed rig cameras capture the day-to-day antics and artistry inside a busy tattoo studio on Sydney's Bondi Beach. This series reveals unique, entertaining and often poignant insights into why so many Australians get inked.

It's NRL Grand Final Day in Sydney, and nerves are running high for tattoo artist (and mad Bulldogs supporter) Dennis, who is hoping to finish work in time to watch his team play. Unfortunately, he's at the mercy of manager Josh. Dennis's quirky client, Englishman Stephen is getting a quote tattooed on his forearm - but this is no typical quote. This is his latest addition to his collection of tattoos to make him smile, which include a to-do list, and a 'cup-o-soup' barcode... on his bottom.

Another Brit Boy, Darren, arrives to make good on a bet he has recently lost. Piercer Scotty is giving Darren some bling, in the form of a diamante stud for his bellybutton.

At 83, Jan is the studio's oldest client - and most treasured VIP. To celebrate her birthday she's getting a small tattoo to commemorate her daughter who died. It's a tradition that she started on her 80th birthday.

Musician Louie has an appointment with Chrash to mark his newly-found religion with a tattoo. With his dreadlocks and tattooed physique, Louie loves to be the centre of attention, contrary to his conservative Chinese upbringing.

Young mum, Hanady, is full of nervous excitement at the prospect of getting her first tattoo to celebrate her kids. Her husband and the whole studio are on hand to cheer this first-timer through the pain - one joke after another.

The last few "Memories" pages have resulted in a couple of nice letters from readers. I wish to acknowledge the letter from Alan Penney of Glenhaven. I have forwarded a copy of the letter to the Pegler family, Alan and they are very appreciative of your comments.

Another letter from Guenter von Sawilski, came as a result of my reminiscing about my arrival in this great country back in 1958. The letter writer wrote his memories of arriving at around the same time as I.

Guenter stated that my memories brought back memories of his first day on Australian soil arriving on the migrant ship "Castel Felice" which stopped for some time at Fremantle.

Telling the story of four guys, including himself, who all met on the ship deciding to check out a local pub in the town and then returning to the dockside and seeing the ship departing. He speaks of some of the ship's crew spotting them singing and waving long neck beer bottles and the crew members then making the ship return.

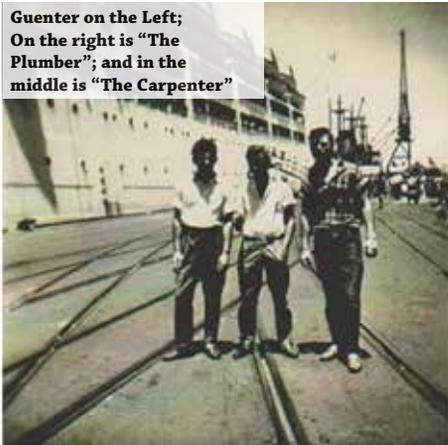

Then Guenter and his three mates spotted an extension ladder across the road and grabbing it and resting it on the side of the ship. Guenter being the last to climb the ladder with the ship then departing a second time. He claimed that the story must have been the talk of the town in Fremantle.

He travelled onto Melbourne and then boarded a train to Port Augusta in South Australia where he sub-contracted as a bricklayer in Whyalla. He married in 1961 and moved to NSW in 1966 where he has lived since saying "never to leave this nice country".

He went on to say that at the time tradesmen such as himself "could come for two years to work on assisted passage by contract."

Guenter in the Middle of this group

Guenter on the right with "the plumber" lifting the ladder

Guenter climbing the ladder the last one on board

Grabbing the Ladder

Guenter departing the "castle Felice" in Melbourne Late Nov. 1958

Guenter's first car a 1941 Chevrolet Took it to Victoria Morwell, Frankstone & Upper Ferntree Gully from Port Augusta - Xmas 1959

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by Ray Williams, Member for Hawkesbury

CASTLE HILL DRIVERS REWARDED WITH HALF PRICE LICENCES

Thousands of drivers in Castle Hill are enjoying half price licences thanks to the NSW Government's 'Fair go for Safer Drivers' initiative. The 'Fair Go for Safe Drivers' initiative was an election commitment to reward safe drivers and gives drivers with a five year good driving record a 50 per cent discount on their licence fees. Over 12,962 male and 15,598 female drivers in the Castle Hill electorate have saved half their licence fee. It is such a great initiative, not only does it reward good drivers and provide a real incentive to encourage better driver behaviour in others but it also gives money back to NSW communities. Across the state, more than 850,000 safe drivers are enjoying this discount and together about $70 million has been saved. Almost 500,000 drivers who have received this discount are women- so guys we need to lift our game! Current unrestricted driver licence renewal fees are $54 for one year, $128 for three years and $170 for five years.

SAFER COMMUNITIES

Communities will be able to fight crime at a grass roots level with a $10 million Community Safety Fund that aims to stamp out anti-social behaviour. A re-elected Baird Government will call on community and local business groups to nominate crime fighting projects in their neighbourhoods as part of its $10 million Community Safety Fund. Under our government NSW's crime statistics are now the best on record with all major crime categories having fallen or remained stable, but there is more we can do, especially at a grass roots level. Everyone has a right to feel safe in their own local area and one of the great things about our state is the sense of community and pride in our neighbourhoods. The NSW Community Safety Fund will provide up to $250,000 grants to non-government or not-for-profit organisations, community groups, chambers of commerce and businesses to build safer and more harmonious communities. The fund will include monies drawn from the NSW Proceeds of Crime Fund. I believe the community will welcome the fact that criminals ill-gotten gains will be put to good use in tackling local crime hot spots and anti-social behaviour," he said. I encourage all communities to bring us ideas on how they think they can benefit from this fund. It could be anything from monitored CCTV, campaigns to reduce stealing from motor vehicles, funding for improvements such as fencing or lighting and initiatives to reduce anti-social behaviour in public places.

The Community Safety Fund will support projects that:

- address local crime hot spots;
- address anti-social behaviour in communities;
- promote safe and inclusive use of public space; and
- promote collaborative approaches to community safety and crime reduction, prevention and detection initiatives.

Local communities understand their area better than anyone and know where funds should be targeted. This is empowering communities to make a real difference at a grass-roots level. This initiative empowers community groups to think about what local factors are behind crime in their area, and then to create local solutions.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

HOW TO PEEL AN APPLE THE EASY WAY

You can take your family on an exciting and interesting picnic into the country to The Oaks. During a tour of the Wollondilly Heritage Centre staff will demonstrate a fascinating automatic apple peeler where the apple even seems to taste better.

George Caley, botanist, was employed by Sir Joseph Banks to collect specimens of nature in New South Wales from 1802. He penned the name, 'The Oaks', for the forest of She-Oaks or Casuarinas that grow naturally on the foothills of the Blue Mountains.

The township is the focus of a farming community that commenced early in the 1800s. It is located 76 kilometres south-west of Sydney on part of the traditional land of the Tharawal Aborigines, whose territory stretched from Botany Bay to Jervis Bay and the Burragorang Valley in the ranges.

When Governor John Hunter accompanied by George Bass explored south of the colony in 1795, he sighted a herd of cows which had escaped from the Sydney settlement in 1788 and gave the name 'Cow Pasture Plains' to the region.

Governor Lachlan Macquarie surveyed this area on a number of occasions and made many land grants. John Henry Wild, a former Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 48th Regiment, received the first land which he named 'Vanderville', where the village of 'The Oaks' now stands. Cattle, sheep and pigs grazed the property and wheat and tobacco were grown with the help of convict labour.

You and your family will treasure fond memories of the picnic held at 'The Oaks'.

EASTER BUNNY

The Bible makes no mention of a long-eared, short-tailed creature who delivers decorated eggs to well-behaved children on Easter Sunday; nevertheless, the Easter bunny has become a prominent symbol of Christianity's most important holiday. The exact origins of this mythical mammal are unclear, but rabbits, known to be prolific procreators, are an ancient symbol of fertility and new life. According to some sources, the Easter bunny first arrived in America in the 1700s with German immigrants who settled in Pennsylvania and transported their tradition of an egg-laying hare called "Osterhase" or "Oschter Haws." Their children made nests in which this creature could lay its colored eggs. Eventually, the custom spread across the U.S. and the fabled rabbit's Easter morning deliveries expanded to include chocolate and other types of candy and gifts, while decorated baskets replaced nests. Additionally, children often left out carrots for the bunny in case he got hungry from all his hopping.

DID YOU KNOW? The largest Easter egg ever made was over 25 feet high and weighed over 8,000 pounds. It was built out of chocolate and marshmallow and supported by an internal steel frame.

THE BENEFITS OF A LOCAL BENDIGO BANK IN NORWEST ARE WIN/WIN/WIN!

When you think about it, how many times have you purchased chocolates or a barbequed sausage sandwich for local charities and good causes? On numerous occasions, no doubt.

A lot of time and effort goes into organising these fundraising efforts which can have some limitations, not to mention people's general "tiredness" at being asked to contribute to these types of traditional fundraising efforts.

This is where a Bendigo Norwest Community Bank can make a real difference. Bendigo Community Banks set aside a certain percentage of their profits to invest in local community projects. We talked to Kerrie Sheaves who is involved with the local "Bring A Mate" project.

"Bring A Mate" focuses on proactive and preventative health programs – physical health, mental health and relationships. "Bring A Mate" believe that the best way to build and strengthen communities is to build the people within the communities through these programs, so that they become more able. More able people are more likely to be willing and able to make contributions – physically and financially – and provide support to others, with a flow on effect to further strengthen the community.

For more information about supporting the Bendigo Branch in Norwest, contact Nic Baines, Secretary of the Steering Committee on 02 9894 8682. For more information about Bring A Mate or Men In Action, visit www.bringamate.com

Aussie Pumps

AUSSIE IS HIRING

When the news seems to be full of stories about the decline of Australian manufacturing, one local company is bucking the trend. Australian Pump Industries has grown from a rural block in Arcadia to a two and a half acre manufacturing plant in Castle Hill.

This Australian company ships product worldwide and is at the cutting edge of design in lightweight, portable fire pumps, pressure cleaners, hydrostatic testers and irrigation pumps.

Just as Australian farmers lead the world in technology and creativity, Australian Pump Industries is taking the lessons learnt in "the dry continent" and applying them around the world.

The real bonus is the great opportunities it provides locals in what will emerge to be the most important industry in Australia. "Water is fundamental to the existence of life on the planet, and our job is to facilitate water usage in a sustainable and environmentally friendly way" said Australian Pump Industries' Chief Engineer, Mr. John Hales.

The company works closely with world leader, Honda and recently was named as a Global Partner by them. This was a real boost for the company as it recognises the commitment to world class quality evident in every area of production.

The company has forecast a period of rapid growth over the next two years. This growth will offer great career opportunities for young people. The company is looking for sales and marketing Cadets, logistics support, mechanics and engineers and even admin and finance people.

The company provides full training and wants to foster young people seeking cadetships for an ongoing career where they can grow their own skills, with the full knowledge of what they do is totally positive. The company stresses its sincere environmental policy where staff make commitments to observe strict laws and standards in terms of environmental protection.

To learn more about Aussie Pumps contact Valerie Kudzielko at Australian Pump Industries (02) 8865 3500, email wlorenz@aussiepumps.com.au or check the website www.aussiepumps.com.au for more information.

Adam Scully and Monica Lennox, both joined Aussie Pumps in 2013 and have developed as young leaders as a result of the Aussie training program.

The meeting will start at 8.00pm and will last approx 2.0 hrs. At the meeting, orchids in bloom will be benched for a monthly point score competition. If you are bringing along a plant for advice, please let an experienced member see the plant before you bring it into the hall as we do not want a diseased plant in the hall which is liable to infect other plants in the hall. The theme of this month's cultural night is on orchid names and correct labelling of an orchid, chaired by Circle members Yin and Sau-wan Chan.

At each meeting there is a sales table selling plants brought along by members, in addition to accessories used for orchid culture. During our supper interval, there will be time to "compare notes" and seek advice from other members.

A camera on Gallipoli travelling exhibition

The Australian War Memorial's digital exhibition A camera on Gallipoli, featuring First World War photographs taken by Sir Charles Ryan, will be available for viewing at Hawkesbury Library, Windsor from 11 April to 8 May during Library opening hours.

In 1914, at the age of 61, Sir Charles Ryan was appointed consulting surgeon to the Australian Imperial Forces (AIF) embarking from Melbourne in October towards the Middle East and on to Gallipoli. A camera on Gallipoli showcases a series of candid photographs taken by Charles Ryan while serving with the AIF in Turkey in 1915. The photographs capture the reality behind the 1915 Gallipoli campaign, depicting a unique and often harsh view of our soldiers' experiences.

Behind the photographs in the exhibition, is the story of Charles Ryan's remarkable life. He served as a doctor with the Turkish army in 1877-78, treated Ned Kelly at Glenrowan, was a leading Melbourne surgeon and gave long service as a senior military officer.

The exhibition is a centenary initiative from the Australian War Memorial to commemorate the centenary of the First World War. Hawkesbury Library is located at 300 George Street, Windsor.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614
