Kellyville's store was owned by Tony and Maria Coito who migrated from Calabria in 1949-50. The store provided jobs for their children by expanding into a pizza shop, coffee shop and hairdressers. All the Comito family gradually bought houses and lived in Kellyville.

KELLYVILLE'S STORE

Kellyville was once a small suburb between Castle Hill and Rouse Hill. Kellyville was originally known as Irish Town and "There and Nowhere". It eventually took the name of an original settler Hugh Kelly (1783-1835) who kept an inn on the Windsor Road called The Bird in Hand.

Kellyville gained national publicity over a trial of religious persecution in early 1894. In February 1893 a small religious group known as Seventh Day Adventists, held a number of tent meetings at Kellyville to explain their religion. Kellyville families attended out of curiosity and as a result people such as William and Harry Firth responded and became followers. As some families began resting on Saturdays and working on Sundays, a statute, Sec 1, Act 29 Charles II (1640-1685) was invoked resulting in the arrest of William and Harry Firth for "toiling on a Sunday". Tried in Parramatta on 7th May 1894, the men were found guilty and fined "five schillings to be recovered by levy and distress, in default placed in the stocks for two hours".

Compatibility for Client and Caregiver

Home Instead Senior Care understands the importance of the compatibility match for both the client and the CAREGiver.

“Worried that no one will get along with your Mum or Dad or loved one?” asks Sue McGarry franchisee of Home Instead, Upper North Shore.

“It may not be as hard as you think to find a patient and respectful caregiver who would truly enjoy the company of your older loved ones and they enjoy the company of the new caregiver.

“As much as you love Mum and Dad, you may find them sometimes difficult to get along with. But remember, family dynamics are pretty powerful and can lead to tensions that may not be an issue with a new friend,” Sue said.

“So if you are wondering if the CAREGiver will put up with Mum’s beloved Jack Russell? Dad’s meticulous care of the roses in the garden? Nan’s addiction to Backgammon? Or Uncle Jack’s eccentricity? Well we would only send a CAREGiver who understands. We pride ourselves on matching clients and CAREGiver by client’s interests, hobbies, activity levels and personality,” Sue said.

LOCAL NEWS

Radio Cuts Hurt Maltese Community

Cuts to SBS have found their latest victim in Maltese radio programming, with its currently weekly radio programming being cut in half.

"We have a strong and proud Maltese history in Australia and that community has always proudly celebrated its language, culture and heritage through many mediums – including radio," said Julie Owens, Federal Member for Parramatta.

"Losing two hours of programming will have a huge effect on the Maltese community.

Western Sydney residents of Maltese background, Charmaine Cassar and Emanuel Camilleri, are coordinating a community petition to SBS to reconsider the decision to cut the programs.

"The Maltese community is getting older and as there aren't newspapers anymore radio is the only avenue of news and communication they have left," said Mr Camilleri, Vice President of the Maltese Community Council.

"If they lose this service it will be a catastrophic loss."

Charmaine Cassar, Co-Chair of the Maltese-Australians' Youth Committee (NSW), has urged the community to get involved.

Maltese SBS Radio 3 programs at 12pm Tuesday and 2pm Thursday will cease on August 6 2015. Maltese SBS Radio 2 programs at 12pm Friday and 2pm Saturday will continue as normal.

Budgerigar Society of N. S. W. Inc. Hills Branch - Ray Galbraith.

Exhibitors mingled with the general public at the Dural Sports Centre to either participate or view the 2015 State Selection Trials, to enable the New South Wales Team to be selected. These birds will be transported to Western Australia to compete in the National Titles at Mandurah the 19th to 24th June 2015.

The following Hills Branch members were successful in having birds included as part of the team namely; John Bardon, Spangle Double Factor, Peter Dodd, Black Eye Self, Ron Roarty, Dominate Pied, Craig Buckingham, Spangle Double Factor, Fallow and Spangle.

It was interesting to note that, the Dominate Pied exhibited by Ron Roarty was Grand Champion at the Hills Branch Annual Show, held in March at North Rocks and the other birds selected were Variety Bird winners at that show. These results indicate the standard of birds attracted to the Hills Show and the participation from country exhibitors endeavouring to test the standard of their birds prior to competing at the statewide and selection shows.

A number of Hills Branch members will be making the trip to Western Australia to view the birds, be involved in the competition and enjoy the activities associated with the National Titles, including social and tourist related events.

The general public have the opportunity to join the Hills Branch, be part of a hobby for all ages, become a family exhibition team, be part of a non - contact activity giving enjoyment; then contact should be made with Peter Dodd on Ph 9888-5631 or peter\_dodd@primus.com.au.

Last weekend, members from Upper Colo and Hawkesbury's Remote Area Firefighting Team participated in the NavShield event, specifically designed for emergency service personnel.

The team put their advanced navigational skills to the test in negotiating rugged terrain, thick scrub and temperatures down to -7 degrees through the Yengo National Park.

The team walked more than 30 kilometres and climbed over 1500 metres. Well done and congratulations to the team in successfully completing the event.

How Successful will the Australian Cyclists be in the Tour de France?

by Trevor Patrick

Several Australian cyclists are considered good prospects to win a jersey this year - Richie Porte (Sky), Simon Clarke (Orica-GreenEDGE), and Adam Hansen (Lotto- Soudal).

The Tour de France began in 1902 and has been held every year in July except for the World War years 1915-1919 and 1940-1947.

The yellow jersey - maillot jaune - is the honoured prize awarded to the race leader of the general classification and was presented for the first time in 1919. The green jersey is for the winner of the points classification, the polka-dot jersey to the rider who earns the most points at designated climbs and the white jersey is worn by the leader of the Tour's youth classification. Australian-born Cadel Evans (BMC) won the Tour in 2011.

The Hills District is host to the Tour de Hills initiated by Rotary Club of Castle Hill and first held in March 1996 with a 20km and 70km division. All monies raised are in aid of the Motor Neuron Disease Fund.

Inspector George Gently
Sunday, 19 July 2015 - 8:30pm
Final

#ourABC

Its Christmas Eve 1969, and Gently (Martin Shaw), Bacchus (Lee Ingleby) and Rachel (Lisa Mcgrillis) are relaxing with the team at HQ with drinks and a few silly hats. As Gently reads out the Queen's festive letter, he's interrupted by a call about a bank robbery.

Gently is dismayed to discover that dangerous Sten guns with Dumdum bullets have been used by the robbers, so it's clear they were out to do maximum damage.

Rachel interviews the bank's doorman who proudly boasts how he grabbed one of the guns and shot at the getaway car. But Gently's not impressed - a number plate would have been more helpful.

One of the witnesses, a teenager, Kit (Patrick MacNamee), tried to trip up one of the robbers and tells Gently that the lead gunman was out of control. Gently drives Kit home to his mother, Edith, a policeman's widow. Eventually Rachel finds the getaway car, but is shocked when she opens the door and the body of a young woman dressed as a 'Skin' falls out. Gently and Bacchus confirm that judging from the angle, she must have been shot by the bank's doorman.

Bacchus goes in search of anyone who knows the driver Lexie because, as the getaway driver, she must have known the robbers. The search takes them into the world of the 'Skins' - a new youth subculture who wear cropped hair, boots and braces.

They meet Jonjo Burdon (Jody Latham) who runs the Skinhead's club, and Gently is in no doubt that he is the maniac leader of the gang who robbed the bank, and is anxious that this psychotic criminal is put behind bars. But a search of Burdon's club turns up no guns and no evidence with which to bring Burdon down. They feel the 'Skins' knew they were coming...

Rachel is promoted to Sergeant and goes undercover as a 'Skin' to get to know Burdon and the source of the guns. She is in a dangerous position but Gently trusts her. Rachel learns there is to be another bank robbery, and the police lie in wait..... But things go badly wrong.....

Married Behind Bars
Monday, 20 July 2015 - 9:40pm

So many of us dream of our wedding day, when all eyes will be on us and we'll get to declare our love in front of friends and loved ones, and be together forever.

Not as many dream of tying the knot whilst the groom is handcuffed, wearing prison overalls and offering a prison guard the first slice of wedding cake. MARRIED BEHIND BARS tells the stories of couples tying the knot in prison.

Some refer to a marriage jokingly as a prison sentence... but in the case of these couples it's not far from the truth. Around 2 million people get married in the USA every year, and a surprising number of these weddings actually take place in prison. Getting married whilst incarcerated is seen in many countries as a prisoner's right and we look at how these ceremonies are done across the states as each bride and groom marries the person of their dreams, in spite of their faults, crimes and sentences.

We follow each couple as they prepare for their big day, fighting through a minefield of prison regulations along the way; choosing the right dress - no tight or revealing clothing and no short skirts, or the wedding won't be allowed to go ahead. The prisoner must remain in prison overalls, wearing handcuffs and flanked by guards. Any aisle the bride may walk down before the ceremony takes place must involve a security x-ray machine and a bag search, and their first kiss as man and wife will be through protective glass.

Tour de France
Every night on SBS (July 4-27)
**Live All Markets****

SBS has all 21 stages of the 2015 Tour de France LIVE and exclusive, daily morning and evening highlight recaps, and for the first time ever stage replays every day. The 2015 race boasts the biggest line up of cycling names in recent years with 2014 champion Vincenzo Nibali, 2013 victor Chris Froome, and this year's Giro d'Italia winner Alberto Contador ready to battle through a gruelling three weeks of racing. Australia's own Richie Porte is set to go wheel-to-wheel with the big names with Australia behind him, and Aussie team Orica-GreenEDGE will be chasing stage wins.

SBS's expert cycling team will follow every moment of the race as it unfolds. Cycling host Michael Tomalaris anchors SBS's coverage for a special milestone as he celebrates his 20th year covering the Tour de France. Alongside him for the first time is three-time winner of the Tour de France green sprinter's jersey Robbie McEwen. Reporter David McKenzie and commentator Matt Keenan round out the team on the ground in France, with the incomparable duo of Phil Liggett and Paul Sherwin providing their trademark commentary for SBS throughout the late nights and early mornings.

Mayor Jefferies said that while Council meets all seven Fit for the Future benchmarks in its current form, the best way forward was to adjust boundaries that better reflect 21st century communities.

Council invests $186 Million for the future Sydney Hills

“When it comes to infrastructure, there’s more than $12 million to be spent on road rehabilitation, $26 million

The Castle Hill Showground will be the location for the two-day celebration, with families set to be entertained with a wide range of activities, displays and performances.

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by David Elliott, Member for Baulkham Hills

NSW BUDGET: STRONGEST IN THE NATION

The NSW Government is providing record infrastructure and services in the 2015-16 Budget, and accelerating infrastructure projects that will change this state forever.

The underlying surplus for 2015-16 is estimated at $712.6 million and in each year of the forward estimates surpluses are forecast. When our reforms to transport assets are included, the 2015-16 surplus is $2.5 billion.

The work of the NSW Government over the last four years is now benefitting everyone across the state, including Baulkham Hills.

The Hills is benefitting from a record infrastructure spend, with $4 million dedicated to planning the Memorial Avenue upgrade, more than $1 billion to the North West Rail Link this year with rolling stock being purchased, and $51 million towards the NorthConnex project, which will allow us to plan ahead to ensure local residents are protected from the environmental impacts of the motorway.

In addition to this, we will also see $26 million spent on replacement buses, $41 million for extra buses, $200,000 towards the upgrade of the intersection of Wrights and Windsor Roads, and $100,000 for a pedestrian crossing at Coonara Avenue and Castle Hill Road.

We are now ready to deliver Rebuilding NSW, a $20 billion boost to infrastructure that will catapult NSW into the fast lane, with $6 billion being directed toward regional infrastructure as part of the NSW Government's plan.

As part of the NSW Budget 2015-16 we have also announced a new initiative. We are using our strong financial position to bring forward $591 million of funding for infrastructure so we can get these major projects going as soon as possible, so we can deliver new projects that will change this state forever.

In this Budget the State will fund an average of $10.3 billion a year on infrastructure over the forward estimates, with state infrastructure spending in NSW over four years a record $68.6 billion, including major health, transport and schools projects.

We are also delivering record services, whether it is in health, education, transport or family or community services, and each of these key areas has seen growth in their budgets from last year of more than five per cent.

GREAT NEWS FOR BAULKHAM HILLS FAMILIES: SYDNEY WATER BILLS TO BE REDUCED

I welcome Sydney Water's proposal that would see households in Baulkham Hills save $100 on their water bills each year from 2016-2020.

I am pleased to see government agencies in NSW becoming more efficient and being able to pass on those savings to households in Baulkham Hills.

I am proud the NSW Government is helping to ease the cost of living for families in Sydney.

The NSW Government will invest more than $705 million over the next financial year to maintain, renew and upgrade critical infrastructure across Sydney's water and wastewater network, including projects in Baulkham Hills.

The NSW Government is budgeting investment of $3.5 billion over the five years, from 2015-16 to 2019-20.

Since the NSW Liberals & Nationals Government was elected in 2011, more than $2 billion has been invested in Sydney Water's infrastructure network.

The planned investment over the coming years will allow Sydney Water to provide services to new customers in growth areas.

It will also ensure Sydney Water continues to provide the highest quality drinking water and an efficient wastewater service, while continuing to improve customer satisfaction for households in Baulkham Hills.

Sydney Water's proposal for prices to apply from 2016-2020 will be reviewed by IPART.

IPART will also place the proposal on public exhibition, with the public encouraged to provide feedback.

GRANTS AVAILABLE FOR LOCAL FOOTY CLUBS

The NSW Footy Facilities Fund is now open for applications until 12th August 2015.

The programme is a joint initiative of the National Rugby League and the NSW Government, and offers funding for projects throughout NSW.

This programme is an important initiative that will help fund grassroots footy clubs in the Hills and throughout NSW.

The NRL and the NSW Government want to get behind our local footy clubs, and support their work in the community.

The main objectives of the Footy Facilities Fund are to increase regular and ongoing participation opportunities in Rugby League and to improve the standard of grounds and facilities.

Additionally, applications can be strengthened by addressing one or more of the following:

- improving safety at sport and recreation facilities (e.g. providing safer playing field, access pathways for players, disability ramps)
- increase the security at sport and recreation facilities (e.g. installation of fencing)
- remove barriers to promote inclusion in Rugby League (e.g. upgrade of amenities to increase female participation, provision of disability access, upgrade of referee amenities)
- develop environmentally sustainable sport and recreation facilities (e.g. installation of drainage, rainwater tanks, more efficient lighting)
- building strong communities.

For more information and to apply, visit www.dsr.nsw.gov.au/grants or call 13 13 02.

Cheeky little Crystal came into care from a local pound with her mummy Emerald when she was just 9 weeks old. Even though mummy Emerald was in shocking condition her kittens were a ball of health as she was such a great mum and gave her babies all she had. Crystal is a very alert and an extremely playful little girl who is quite shy and nervous on first meeting but once she warms to you she is the complete opposite, full of love and affection. Crystal is fine with dogs, children and other cats, so if you want to add a little sparkle into your life then Crystal is your own little gem. Crystal is desexed, microchipped, vaccinated, flea and worm treated and full of bounce.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614

Reader, Gordon Cansdale of Glenhaven recently wrote to me after my article regarding sailing to Australia on the Fairsea in November 1958. Gordon also sailed to Australia on that same ship in 1956 and said that it was the last ship through the Suez Canal, before it was closed during the Suez Crisis of the time. He further stated that it was thought at the time because of the "V" on the funnel that it was owned by the Russian Vlaso line and so then let through the canal. Gordon has also written the following memory of his service in the Royal Navy after being "called up" in 1945, the year that WW2 finished.

The Good Times and The Bad Times

By Gordon Cansdale

The old saying that one only remembers the good times can be quite true, but in my case there was one bad time in particular that I will never forget.

As a teenager I learned a song that went something like this:-

"Memories are treasures locked in my heart I mean to keep evermore. Of all the treasures one stands apart, saved from the dear days of 'Yore'

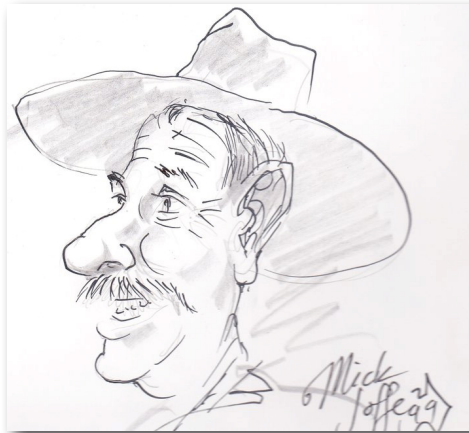

60 years ago, (1945) I received notice that I was to be conscripted into the armed forces. I was hoping that it would be the navy as my father had served in the navy in the 1914-18 war.

YES!! I was selected for the Royal Navy, better still, the Fleet Air Arm, a dream come true. Fighter aircraft, Rolls Royce engines, a chance to see the world, and of course a navy uniform.

So, my adventure began by first learning how to march, handle firearms, and not forgetting plenty of naval discipline. Next step was the Rolls Royce School of Technical Training. THIS WAS IT!! learning about the mighty Merlin engine.

On completing this course, I was posted to a shore establishment 'HMS Blackcap' inhibiting engines for storage. This didn't last long, as I soon learned that I had been given a sea-going draft. I was to become a member of 812 Squadron (Fireflies) and join HMS Theseus in Ireland.

After a short training period ashore in N. Ireland it was off to see the world. Those far away places with strange sounding names. Gibraltar. Suez. Aden. Trincomalee. Andaman Islands. Nicobar Islands. Singapore. Australia. New Zealand. New Guinea.

The reception we received in Australia and New Zealand was just great. The street marches with the whole ship's company through the streets of Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane, Auckland and Wellington. The people were just fantastic, with dances and sight-seeing trips. They also organized home visits, and food parcels for our families back home.

BUT! it wasn't all plain sailing, whilst flying and demonstrating for the Australian Navy there were several disasters. Two Fireflies collided in mid air over Port Phillip Bay and crashed into the sea killing both air crews. ---One of the engines was pulled up out of the sea some fifty years later, and is now in the Australian F.A.A. Museum in Nowra which I often visit with an old 'oppo' Totty Allman--- The same day a Seafire crash landed on deck, the arrestor hook striking a seaman in the walkway and killing him.

For me the worst was yet to come (my disaster day). It was the job of the ground crew to assist the pilot out of the cockpit on landing. I was the fitter of the Squadron CO's aircraft (Lt Cdr Wynne-Roberts) and would compete with my rigger mate 'Spiv' Daly to be first up on to the plane to do the job. The winner would then have pole position sitting on top of the cockpit to watch the remainder of the aircraft land.

It was 6th August 1947 and Spiv had won the race, sitting on top of the cockpit, I had to settle for a seat on the wing. The next aircraft landed OK, the crash barriers were lowered and it taxied forward. THEN ALL HELL LET LOOSE. The third aircraft missed the arrestor wires and bounced over the crash barriers. To my horror I realised it was heading straight for us, so I dropped off the wing and ran for the ship's side. It then clipped the second aircraft and dropped on top of ours. On impact, debris was showered everywhere, and as I was dropping into the safety net, the batteries burst and I was splattered with acid. Minutes later I was lifted out of the safety net and rushed below to sick bay, washed down, and treated for acid burns. My clothes had to be replaced as they were covered in holes, burnt by the acid.

I asked about Spiv and was told that he was missing, presumed killed. I couldn't believe that I was with him just a short time before, and the last person to see him alive. Could easily have been me.

The things I will always remember are the noise of the plane bouncing, the terrific noise of the impact, and someone shouting "There's somebody down in the net" ME!!! As they lifted me out there was a wheel, and Oleo leg nearby. All that remained of two aircraft.

When the deck was finally cleaned up, the last aircraft came in to land, also bouncing over the crash barriers. It clipped the Island before crashing into the starboard gun sponson, then tipped over nose first into the sea. Luckily the aircrew were recovered safely.

From Australia, our next port of call was the Solomon Islands which was very interesting as there were ships and a submarine on the beach, Jap relics of the war a couple of years previous.

Port Moresby in New Guinea was also interesting, with a trip out to Jackson airstrip which still had the odd Zero fighter, and a Betty bomber smashed up. Also a wine bar.

Back to Singapore where I learnt I was to leave Theseus and return home for demob with others who had the same demob number as me (72).

The rest of my service was spent at HMS Nuthatch, doing maintenance, cutting grass, painting fences etc. Finally my demob and the end of a great adventure with many good times, and a few bad. Plus many great friends, and a lot of MEMORIES.

"Memories are treasures locked in my heart I mean to keep evermore. Of all the treasures one stands apart, saved from the dear days of 'Yore'

Get connected with music at Hawkesbury Library Service

As technology evolves, so does your public library. Hawkesbury Library Service now has music and music videos which library members can download legally and free.

Freegal Music includes Sony Music’s catalogue of legendary artists and has a huge range of styles, including Classical, Rap, Pop, Rock, Children’s and Country, and many more.

There are over 9 million songs and over 15,000 music videos. There are no digital rights management (DRM) restrictions and all you need is your library card number and your library pin.

Freegal Music can be used on any Mac or PC, and they also have an app that can be used on your iOS (iphone or ipod) or Android device.

The Mayor of Hawkesbury, Councillor Kim Ford believes Freegal Music is a great addition to the library’s online collections.

“Our local library service now offers online collections which include eBooks, eAudiobooks and eMagazines,” Councillor Ford said.

“There are also many authoritative information databases that are freely available.”

You can find the link to Freegal Music on the library section of Council’s website. www.hawkesbury.nsw.gov.au/library. For more information, contact the Hawkesbury Library Service on (02) 4560 4460.

Recycling Workshop

As landfill space decreases and costs increase, it’s important to improve our recycling habits. To create awareness and also celebrate Local Government Week (3-9 August), Hawkesbury Library Service will host a free recycling workshop on Wednesday, 5 August at 6pm.

Participants will learn how to help the environment, starting with the basics of recycling, learning about the different types of plastics found in many household items and what do to with certain materials. A demonstration of the ‘closed loop approach’ to recycling will be shown by Council’s Waste Education Officer.

Tell us what you thought of our Deerubbin Centre’s 10th Birthday Party

Did you attend the Deerubbin Centre’s 10th Birthday Family Fun Day on Saturday, 20 June?

Council is currently seeking feedback from members of the public who attended the event.

The survey takes only a few minutes to complete and asks the community to tell us what they thought of the day, what they liked and how we could improve for next time.

Mayor of Hawkesbury Councillor Kim Ford said “Community members who submit their feedback will be helping Council to improve our cultural events for the future.”

Residents can provide their feedback on Council’s Your Hawkesbury - Your Say website, www.yourhawkesbury-yoursay.com.au. The feedback form appears on the right hand side of the homepage under ‘Current Survey’.
