REMEMBRANCE

A boy from Arcadia - France and Belgium 1916-1917

Bill Trethowan was born at the home of his parents Alf Trethowan Snr and his wife Anna Maria in Smalls Road, Arcadia in 1891. Alf and Anna Maria had married in Falmouth, Cornwall, England in 1877 and sailed to begin a new life in Australia in October of that year. Alf came from a long line of shipwrights in the family shipbuilding yard in Falmouth, but once in Sydney he established a ham & beef shop, (a deli today) in The Rocks area of Sydney, this was sold at a capital gain and the process was repeated at Burwood and Granville before he had enough money to make a down payment on 40 acres on the corner of Smalls and Blacks Roads Arcadia in 1885.

Bill grew up happily attending Arcadia Public School and was promised a ten acre portion of the family property to establish a farm.

Bill had three brothers, the eldest Alf Jnr married Ruby Pugsley in 1908, Ern married Myra Geddes in 1913. His sister Daisy never married, and little Sidney died aged 4.

Alf Jnr and Ern had already established their homes and farms on their 10 acre portions when Bill enlisted on 3rd June 1915.

The family expected Bill to marry a very pretty local girl and establish his farm as soon as the war was over. Ruby and Myra were very fond of their prospective sister in law and keen for her to join the family in Smalls Road.

Alf and Ruby drove Bill and his young lady to Hornsby where they farewelled Bill as he got the train after his final leave before embarkation. On 5th October, 1915 he sailed on HMAT Warialda from Brisbane.

He served at Poziers on the Somme, at Bulecourt then Mefines Ridge in Belgium in 1917 where he was wounded in the right arm. His injury was up near the shoulder and the artery was spurting. He was told "hang on to that young fellow or you'll bleed to death."

It was a day and a half before they could get him to a casualty station. It was a near death experience. He was taken to England where his nurse was Miss Mable Downs whose father was a pharmacist in St Kilda, Melbourne.

During the long period of recovery Bill fell in love with his nurse. This was a common occurrence with young men who were wounded far away from home.

Bill was discharged on the 12th June, 1918 unfit for service and unfit to establish his little farm. The young lady he left behind at Arcadia never married.

This is what war did to many young women at that time.

Bill and Mable were married in 1919 their post war life was spent in Melbourne where Bill was limited to office work. They had two children Alan and Beryl.

They returned to Arcadia for regular family visits right up until 1959. In 1960 Bill and Alf both died during the winter but they had had a very happy last visit only months before.

My great Uncle Bill I am so glad you made it home, so glad that I was able to know you.

7 Tips to Choose the Right Mobility Scooter

There are many of us who are not able to enjoy this beautiful season out and about simply because our body is not able to cope up with our mind and heart. There is no reason to feel disappointed. One could enjoy same or better mobility by equipping oneself with a mobility scooter or a power chair. That throws in the challenge of how to select suitable motorized mobility equipment. Comfort Discovered ( 511 Pacific Highway, Mt Colah, Hornsby, 02 9987 4500, Open 7 Days) can assist you with the selection and purchase of the most suitable equipment for you.

First and foremost one must discuss this matter with his or her doctor and family members before proceeding to buy or hire one. At Comfort Discovered, they will first ensure that the potential buyer is able to independently handle and operate such an equipment.

- 1. Is it a Power Chair or Mobility Scooter? This will depend on several factors and mostly on the physical ability of the user and where it would be used. A power chair would be ideal for indoor use.
- 2. Size and Portability: Do you require the scooter to be a portable one? How often would you transport it? Or you would like a stable scooter primarily to be used in one place? What is the weight of the user? What is the terrain where the scooter is going to be used? What is the length of the most frequent trip? You will be pleasantly surprised with the latest models of portable scooters at Comfort Discovered and how easy and light they are to assemble and dismantle.

3. Three wheel or four wheel?

Four wheels ensures more stability whereas three wheel has shorter turning circle.

4. Compliance with Australian Standards:

Its important that you buy one from your local supplier who ensures that the unit complies with the strict Australian Standards for quality.

5. Warranty and Back Up Service:

Like your car a scooter has to be backed up with a strong warranty and technical support. Battery is another important element in the selection.

6. Features:

Do you want a Luggage carrier? A canopy to shield you from the sun and rain? A comfortable seat? A USB mobile charger can be handy these days. Some of the scooters have trendy dash board displays that shows you the distance travelled, speed, battery levels, indicators etc. etc. Choose the color that best represents your taste.

7. Test Drive: No body sensible buys a car without a test drive. Why would you buy yours without one? Comfort Discovered (511 Pacific Highway, Mt Colah, Hornsby, 02 9987 4500 Open 7 Days) has a very convenient location to take a peaceful hassle free test drive. They may even gift you a shop voucher if you took a test drive before November 2015.

TLC3DP

This business started in August 2015, been working in the Hawkesbury area under TLCIT Hawkesbury since 2004. It was started originally to bring 3D printing to the Hawkesbury, but we soon realised that while there is a much bigger market out there, the local area could really benefit from 3D printing as well.

3d printing enables people to bring their imagination to a real object that they can hold and use. What would have been an expensive pipe dream not too long ago, is now in the very affordable realm for everyone. Getting something 3D printed is very affordable for our customers and we are protective of any original intellectual property - your original designs won't be printed without your consent.

We are happy to come and talk about 3D printing to schools, businesses and community organisations. We'll bring along a 3D printer and get it making something while we discuss what 3D printing can do to enhance your community organisation, school or business. Hobbyists are not to be left out - we have 3D printer kits available for purchase and construction.

We can supply 3D printers and the filament to use in them, as well as providing 3D printing and consultation services or spare parts.

Custom and or unique custom coloured filament is available upon request. We can supply one kilogram to 5 kilogram or more sized reels of filament, which is Australian made down in Melbourne - not imported from overseas.

Living Home Instead Independently

Comprehensive library of monthly informative and helpful articles for older people wanting to stay happy and healthy in their own.

Caring and Arthritis

Practical advice for carers and people living with arthritis.

In Australia, nearly one in five people has arthritis. Many people think arthritis is a normal part of growing older however, it can affect people from all backgrounds, ages and lifestyles and two out of every three people with the disease are between 15 and 60 years old.

Developed in collaboration with people living with arthritis, their carers, and Arthritis Queensland, this guide provides practical advice about caring for a person with arthritis.

Caring for someone with arthritis can be a challenge. This booklet has been developed by Arthritis Queensland to help people caring for an adult with arthritis. This booklet:

- Explains what arthritis is and how it affects people
- Suggests ways a carer can provide practical support
- Provides tips on improving communication between the carer and the person being cared for
- Outlines additional sources of support for people with arthritis
- Includes information about where carers can obtain further advice and support

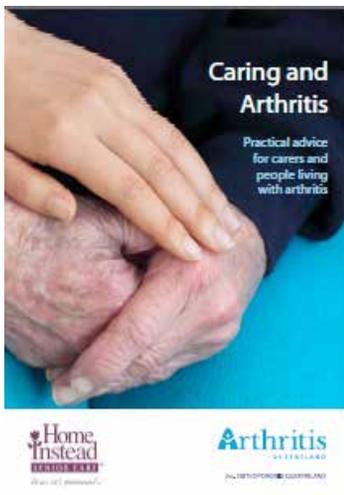

There are three main ways in which you can help:

1. Understand what arthritis means. In the same way that understanding their condition helps people with arthritis to cope, the more you understand about arthritis the more you will be able to provide supportive care and assistance.
2. Support arthritis management. This could range from providing reminders about taking medications, to assisting with recommended exercises, activities or therapies that have been helpful in reducing the symptoms of arthritis.
3. Communicate effectively. Good communication - listening as well as talking - is essential. It's important that you and the person with arthritis discuss how you're both feeling and agree on how you can work together.

Home Instead are a private non-medical home care services established since 1994 and provide care for the Hornsby and Hills area.

If you would like our Caring and Arthritis booklet give us a call and we can mail one out to you.

Only brush the teeth you want to keep

It's an interesting line but it is amazing how true it is. Dental decay is the major reason for tooth pain, loss of tooth structure and loss of the teeth.

Think back to when and how you were shown how to brush your teeth, most people can't. Also do you remember what technique you were shown? Most people were just given a toothbrush and told to brush.

I have 2 young children 2 ¾ and 4 ½ year olds. They are lucky because their dad is a Dentist and helps them brush. Where did I learn, at University of all places, before that I had no idea, 'I just brushed'. A good technique for anything you do in life is taught not learnt on your own.

Another important part of any action is 'are they capable of caring out the task unassisted'. I would never get my children to clean the dishes we eat off so why would I let them clean the teeth that they eat with?

For mums and dads it is recommended that until children have the ability to tie their shoelaces they don't have the capability to control a toothbrush to get all their teeth so they need your help.

For us Adults. It's a different story. Would you go through your day and eat off dirty plates and bowls? So why do that with the teeth you eat with?

The idea of brushing is to get the food that gets stuck removed so that plaque doesn't have food to use to make holes in your teeth. Not only that the food that sits on your teeth is slowly rotting away, which leads to bad breath, similar to rotting food in a garbage bin.

So a simple twice a day action can help save teeth, keep your smile, and keep your breath fresh.

So if it is time for your check-up give us a call at Glenhaven Dental 9680 2400.

The Hills remembers with 1812 Overture at Bella Vista Farm Park

Remembrance Day will be celebrated in the Sydney Hills with a stirring rendition of Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture at Bella Vista Farm Park on Saturday 14 November. The Overture will be played by the Castle Hill RSL Youth Orchestra and be accompanied by synchronised pyrotechnics.

Other activities on the day will include: farm house tours of the historic Homestead, Devonshire tea, food stalls, an animal farm, wrangling reptile display and free kids activities.

The memorial event will commence at 3pm and runs till 8:30pm and offers families and community members a chance to spend a fun afternoon at the Farm while paying their respects to those whose lives have been affected by war.

Castle Hill RSL Sub-branch president Colonel Don Tait said Remembrance Day commemorations help Australians to honour the loss of loved ones, empathise with those who have been injured by war and to remember that on 11 November 1918 WW1 ended.

"Remembrance Day means many things to me, but importantly it ended a war and Australian Army, Navy and Air Force service personnel could return home and restart their lives with their families. To me personally I use the day to thank and remember the sacrifices that so many service personnel made and in particular the 571 who come from the Hills District," Don said.

"The 1812 Overture Remembrance Day offers a family day that provides good food, a fun park and an exciting stage show for the kids; with pipe bands playing, singing groups, a short Remembrance Day Service to remember the veterans who went to WW1 from the Hills and culminates with the 1812 Overture," he said.

Mark this important occasion at Bella Vista Farm Park on Saturday 14 November. A small entry fee of $5 will be charged, with all patrons receiving a poppy on entry. Children under 9 are free.

LEST WE FORGET

THE IMPORTANCE OF BUYING LOCAL

by Vicki Brownless

As local markets become more popular, let's look at their place in our community and the reasons why consumers should consider them as a prime source of goods.

Firstly, growers' markets allow customers to have access to locally grown, farm-fresh produce and, since locally grown produce does not travel far to get to your table, the difference in mileage saves fossil fuels. Meat is from animals that have been raised humanely on pasture, farmstead cheeses are handmade, eggs and poultry are from free-range fowl, and fresh fruit and vegetables are seasonally-grown in local plots, reflected in increased flavour and shelf-life.

Markets give growers and producers the opportunity to develop a personal relationship with their customers. This enables the customers to provide valuable feedback in regard to packaging, shelf-life and the viability of value-adding to increase the growers' range of products. In addition, this relationship enhances customer loyalty, a vital component of any business relationship.

Ding The Recipe – Asian spice pastes

Young people who are encouraged to attend local markets gain a greater understanding of the importance of maintaining small, sustainable farms on the fringe of urban environments, the source of the food on their tables, and the alternative lifestyle that being a grower or producer can provide.

Art and craft markets provide an excellent venue to showcase local talent. Many home-based artists and crafters do not have the resources or the desire to produce the quantity of goods demanded by traditional retail outlets, and local markets are a very desirable alternative. Discerning shoppers have long been aware of the uniqueness of products available at local markets which not only present the opportunity for relaxed gift-shopping, far from the chaos of big, noisy shopping centres, but also the joy of having something custom designed and made to order.

So, next time you see a local market advertised, take a moment to think what might be on offer, how you can contribute to your local economy. Let's face it, you're going to spend your money somewhere; by spending in your local community, you're investing in its growth.

Your Garden

Mt Tomah

by Laura Rittenhouse
www.laurarittenhouse.com

Macquarie Towns Garden Club takes advantage of months with five Thursdays to get out of our meeting room and into the fresh air with an excursion. October's outing was to the Blue Mountains Botanic Garden in Mt Tomah. I have a funny feeling that my husband and I were the only club members who had never been before. I'm happy to report that omission has been rectified!

Mt Tomah opened to the public on 1 November, 1987. This was possible due to the generosity of Alfred and Effie Burnet who, in 1972, gave their farm to the Royal Botanic Gardens. The Burnet's had used part of this land to grow bulbs for cut flowers which they sold to Sydney florists. The planted gardens currently cover 28 hectares of land which is divided into several different areas to showcase specific regions and plant species. Because of its 1000 metre elevation, the gardens specialise in cooler climate plants that wouldn't survive in the Sydney basin.

Surrounding the gardens are an additional 186 hectares of land dedicated to conservation plus "The Jungle", 33 hectares of Blue Mountains rainforest accessible via a pleasantly meandering path. It is this spectacular setting that ices the cake of some breathtakingly beautiful plants and flowers.

Of course there are internal displays which educate and inform, but it's outside in the glory of the gardens where Mt Tomah shines. It's hard to imagine it ever looking lovelier than it does in spring, but rumour has it that each season has its own special features. I'll be heading back up regularly to test this fact.

The garden club is taking a summer hiatus. Our next meeting is on February 4th 2016. I hope to see you there.

If you're interested in gardening, join us at the Macquarie Towns Garden Club. We meet at 2:00 p.m. on the first Thursday of each month at the Windsor Library. Check us out at: www.macquarietownsgardenclub.wordpress.com. If you have suggestions or feedback for me, send it c/o: contribute@hillstohawkesbury.com.au.

HORNSBY BLUE GUM CIRCUIT

(JOE'S MOUNTAIN CIRCUIT)

Length: 4.2km circuit

Time: 1.5 to 2 hours

This is one of my favourite walks in the Hornsby area. About 5 minutes in you will feel a million miles from anywhere; wilderness in your backyard. It is an enjoyable circuit walk that allows you to explore this rare pocket of Sydney Blue Gum forest.

The walk takes you alongside some lovely cascades Waitara and Berowra Creeks. There are many small sandstone caves and a great diversity in plant life along the way. Sit quietly on the bank of Waitara Creek and you are likely to see a few water dragons, or get going early you might be lucky enough to spot some Lyrebirds.

Partway through the walk, there is a short 'must do' side trip down to the Fishponds. This is a long water hole with stepping stones allowing you to cross the creek and check out the cave on the other side.

Suitable for most people who have done some bushwalking, there are unfenced cliffs and a creek crossing. The creek does flood and becomes impassable after heavy or prolonged rain. Never enter fast flowing water.

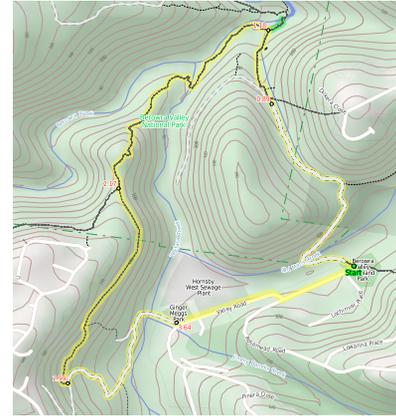

Getting to the start:

The walk starts from a signpost in the part at the end of Rosemead Rd, Hornsby (near the intersection with Lockinvar Pl).

You can also get to the start on foot by following the Great North Walk signs from Hornsby station for just over 1km, down the steep hill.

The walk starts by following the Blue Gum walk signs down along the fire trail, across the small creek and up the hill.

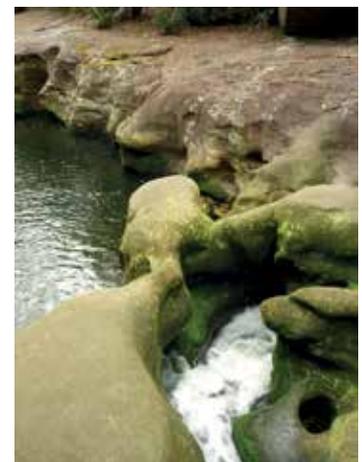

The walk leaves the bush beside Ginger Meggs Playground on Valley Rd, it is a short road walk back to the start from there.

There are no toilets at the start or along the walk.

The walk is fairly well signposted and follows a well-defined track.

You can download and print the free PDF with tracknotes with more information from www.wildwalks.com OR type <http://wild.tl/bg> into Google and the link will take you straight to this walk.

Have fun, Happy Walking

WE REMEMBER THEM — HMAS Parramatta II by Trevor Patrick

The Royal Australian Navy received the Grimsby Class Sloop following its launching in 1939. She took part in operations against Italian Eritrea, East Africa, in 1941, then transferred to the Mediterranean station, escorting vessels carrying desperately needed supplies to Tobruk in North Africa where Australian soldiers were under siege by the German army led by Rommel. In one action, forty eight dive bombers attacked the ship and her surrounding vessels, yet she successfully defended her charges.

On November 27, 1941 a single torpedo struck amidships tearing the ship apart. One hundred and thirty-eight men, including the Commanding Officer and all nine officers, lost their lives. Only twenty-four of the crew survived.

A memorial service is held on the Sunday close to November 27, in the Queens Wharf Reserve, George Street, Parramatta.

Parramatta Memorial Sub-Section Naval Association of Australia, representatives of HMAS Parramatta IV, Royal Australian Navy and Parramatta & District Historical Society attend.

You will be welcome to join Parramatta & District Historical Society which conducts guided tours of Hambleton Cottage House Museum, Gregory Place, Parramatta, Thursday to Sunday 11am to 4pm.

Aussie Pumps

Primed for Fire Season

Recent rain and warm temperatures have combined to produce a flush of new undergrowth. With just a few hot days, this will rapidly turn the Hills District bushland into a tinderbox with potential for catastrophic bushfires.

Thousands of residents live in pristine bushland suburbs. Many are unaware of the potential dangers this brings.

Think Water Dural, also trading as Dural Irrigation, is well prepared for the early start to this year's fire season. Senior salesman, Peter Colosimo has turned a section of their store into an 'Aussie Pump Shop', stocking a full range of engine drive pumps including the Aussie Fire Chief.

"People are already taking advice from firefighting authorities to prepare for an early fire season. We can help with a great range of Aussie fire pumps but also with advice and accessories that can be the difference to success or failure in fire protection," he said.

Aussie Pumps are running a seasonal campaign called "Aussie Fire Safe". The program includes a wide range of initiatives to educate the community to defend property, crops, livestock and human lives.

"Fire protection is more than just buying a pump," said Peter. "We have Aussie Survival Guides to give away that inform customers how to set up a fire protection plan for their home or property," he said.

The Aussie Fire Chief is claimed to be the world's best fire pump and represents great value for money. It is built to ISO 9001 quality standards and like all Aussie pumps is covered with a unique five year warranty.

The 'Chief', powered by a Honda 5.5HP, will produce up to 450 litres per minute flow, and offers heads of up to 75 metres. That performance can stop fires in their tracks and put out spot fires with ease.

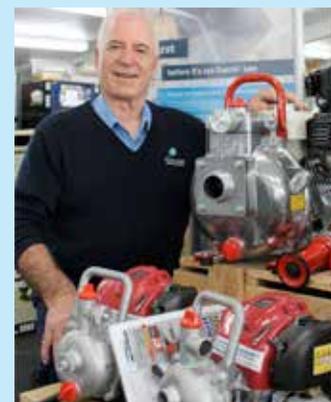

The secret of the pump's performance is in the quality and size of the single piece impeller. At 7 1/2 inches it is not only bigger and heavier than competitor impellers, but its superb hydraulic design pushes more water through the pump.

"The Aussie fire pumps are top of the range and offer real performance," said Peter. "They prime first time, every time, and that's important in an emergency," he said.

Think Water Dural are offering package deals on Aussie firefighting pumps with hose kits. They stress that these pumps have won contracts in USA, France, Spain and Italy. They are also widely used by the NSW Rural Fire Service, the National Parks and Wildlife Service and many other firefighting authorities.

For further information please contact Think Water Dural, 270 New Line Rd, Dural, on 02 9651 4111, or Australian Pump Industries 02 8865 3500.

BIG HEARTS and BIG SMILES at GLENHAVEN

Surgery saves a young life!
 Solomon Islanders 17 year old
 Roselyn Jatobatu and her mother Anna have a lot to smile about after live-saving heart surgery.

Coping with limiting breathlessness and fatigue and facing an uncertain future due to a serious congenital heart condition, Roselyn was operated on at the San Hospital after a call to arms by Rotary Oceania Medical Aid for Children (ROMAC).

The San Hospital have some great humanitarian medical specialists with a long history of volunteering their medical skills, without the surgery the prognosis for Roselyn was not good, and as expected the medical and surgical teams immediately committed their time and expertise.

The Rotary Club of Glenhaven played its part by hosting Roselyn and mother during pre and post surgery, thanks to Rotarians Liz and Hans Rupp who volunteered their home at a time of urgent need.

ROMAC has transformed more than 400 lives since its inception 27 years ago identifying children who could not otherwise access surgery, facilitating medical assessments,
 transport, host families, hospital,
 medical and other support.

Roselyn and Anna all smiles as they say farewell to Glenhaven Rotarians Liz and Hans Rupp.

Series Premiere

#ourABC

In a year dominated by headline stories of domestic violence and the murder of nearly 70 women, award-winning journalist Sarah Ferguson has spent five months on the frontline of our national crisis.

With unprecedented access to forensic doctors, specialised police officers, prisons, courts and their 'safe rooms' where victims shelter from their abusers, Sarah goes in search of answers to some of the most important questions of our time.

How does domestic violence begin? How does it escalate from control to violence and even death? Why do the perpetrators do it and why do their victims stay?

Moving into a refuge in a secret location, Sarah lives alongside women and children running from violent homes. Those women and their children speak with heartbreaking honesty about the lives they have fled.

Sarah also meets perpetrators of domestic violence currently serving time in prison. Visiting the men over several months until their release is imminent, it's clear that effective prison programs are a must. Will this one deliver?

And is there a way out for the women we meet? The injuries are healed, their cases complete, can they rebuild their lives?

This unflinching two-part documentary series will air over two nights, culminating on the UN International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women. Episode two will be immediately followed by a special edition of Q&A hosted by Virginia Trioli.

Tales of the Grim Sleeper
Sunday Best

Lonnie Franklin Jr. was arrested in July 2010 after a 25-year killing spree in which it is thought he could have killed over a 100 victims, potentially making him the most prolific serial killer in history. Significantly his arrest was not the product of painstaking detective work but completely accidental, the result of a computer DNA match that linked him to a possible 20 victims. Franklin now awaits trial. TALES OF THE GRIM SLEEPER, screening as part of the SUNDAY BEST series of feature-length documentaries, looks into how it was possible for all this to happen.

The murders all took place in the South Central area of Los Angeles, the poor part of the city with the worst schools, the worst hospitals, and no jobs. The Lonnie Franklin case has become very political in Los Angeles amidst accusations that the reason the killings were able to go on for so long was because the victims were all black African-American women. The murders were all reported as being the killings of prostitutes, even though it now appears many were not.

What the film does reveal is a police force that didn't care and a community estranged and abandoned from the rest of the city. A police force that for years used the slang term NHI (No Human Involved) for murders of prostitutes, drug addicts and gang members.

In this film we meet all those people the police never talked to.

The Fall
Thursday, 19 November - 8.30pm
Series Return

The cat and mouse chase continues this November on SBS as the second season of award-winning British psychological thriller, The Fall returns.

Following on from the first season's gripping cliff-hanger, Gillian Anderson (The X Files), returns as Detective Superintendent Stella Gibson who is on the trail of serial murderer Paul Spector, played by Jamie Dornan (Fifty Shades of Grey). Despite Gibson and Spector never actually meeting on screen, the chemistry between the two characters was electric and the escalating rivalry became the lynchpin of season one, leaving audiences crying out for more.

This season, a personal link from Spector's past opens up some clues for Gibson but provokes Spector in a way that threatens to jeopardise the whole investigation. Gibson is forced to take ever greater risks but the closer she comes to capturing him, the more Spector trespasses into her private world, delighting in taunting and provoking her. As the net gradually tightens around him he becomes psychologically ever more dangerous and destructive.

Set in Belfast, Northern Ireland, this critically acclaimed series is written and directed by Emmy award-winning Allan Cubitt (The Boys Are Back, Murphy's Law, Prime Suspect 2) and produced by Emmy award-winning producer Gub Neal and Julian Stevens.

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by Ray Williams, Member for Castle Hill

NEW WINDSOR BRIDGE FINALLY TO GO AHEAD

A court decision this week gave the green light to the construction of a new Windsor Bridge.

The action taken by a small group of disgruntled people in opposing this project has cost the taxpayer hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Duncan Gay, NSW Minister for Roads, says it is time for 'community anarchists' to move on.

NSW SURPLUS GROWS AS NET DEBT AND UNEMPLOYMENT FALLS

NSW has a surplus of $2.9 billion – an improvement of $823 million since the June 2015 Budget forecast. The Total State Sector Accounts (TSSA) confirmed that the NSW Government's hard work to bring the Budget back under control was paying off. It's great to see our Budget result firmly in surplus, our net debt falling and our infrastructure spending at record highs. Meanwhile, net debt fell during 2014-15 by $1.4 billion to $5.5 billion. We've managed to spend record amounts on infrastructure while keeping net debt down by using innovative financial solutions. This has allowed us to build the roads, rail, hospitals and schools the State needs while securing our triple-A credit rating. The TSSA comes a week after Standard & Poor's reaffirmed NSW's triple-A credit rating and commended the State's "very strong financial management. NSW also continues to enjoy a significant period of growth and has recorded the lowest unemployment rate of any state, with more than half of the nation's jobs growth over the past 12 months, according to ABS figures. NSW is again outperforming the rest of the nation, with our unemployment rate falling to 5.9 per cent in September – below the national average. The NSW unemployment rate has been at or below the national rate for the last 23 consecutive months. Around 123,000 jobs were created in NSW through the year to September, accounting for more than half of the jobs added nationally. Employment increased by 3.4 per cent through the year to September 2015 – well above national growth of 2.0 per cent. The NSW economy is going from strength to strength, which is driving employment growth. Since April 2011, around 250,000 jobs have been created in NSW – which is well above the next largest state increase of 143,000 in Victoria.

NSW INVESTS AN ADDITIONAL $113 MILLION MORE IN STUDENTS WHO NEED IT MOST

Public schools will benefit from a share of the record $113 million in additional funding announced by the NSW Government to support students who need it most. The needs-based funding, which has been implemented as part of our commitment to the Gonski agreement, is delivering funding to students in a fair and transparent way. In 2016, local public schools will receive $4,753,308. The funding for 2016, made possible by NSW being the first state to sign the Gonski agreement, means NSW students will benefit from needs-based funding totalling $860 million, distributed through the Resource Allocation Model.

Examples of local needs-based funding allocations in our electorate include:

- Kellyville Public School will receive $436,457, which is an increase of $111,200 on 2015;
- Sherwood Ridge Public School will receive

$378,180, which is an increase of $119,483 on 2015.

- Castle Hill High School will receive $771,351, which is an increase of $105,786 on 2015

This needs-based funding can be used in a variety of ways, including employing speech pathologists or specialist teachers to target learning areas. Through the NSW Government's Local Schools, Local Decisions reform, principals in all NSW public schools are making local decisions on how to use these funds to improve student outcomes. As a result of NSW signing up to the Gonski agreement, the NSW Government has also been able to deliver resources to improve the quality of teaching, provide more school counsellors and improve support for beginning teachers.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Anna Fraser on 0449 040 726 or the office 1300 616 614

CHAPTERS IN LIFE

Life is like a book, we have various chapters throughout life. Some are good and some not so good.

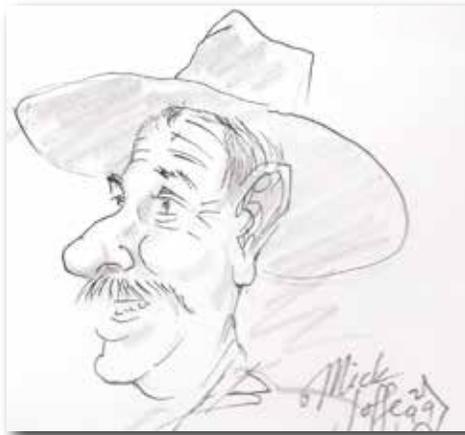

I am in a pensive mood right now. Why you may ask? Our grandson is at a very important stage in his life. This year has been a milestone year for him.

End of his schooling, coming of age, gaining his driving licence, starting his first full time job and apprenticeship. All this and more has got me thinking about the various chapters in our lives.

I guess very few, if any, of us remember the very first chapter in our lives. That naturally would be when we are born. As we get older memories kick in. Our first day at school or kindergarten, then later as we progress to Primary and then High School on each occasion we meet and mix with other children. I guess we all have memories of various school mates and friends. I can still remember some of the mates that I had at school

When I was much younger we did not “come of age” until the age of twenty-one. That was when you got to vote and were given the “key to the house”. You also became an adult legally. Now you come of age at eighteen and there are some who would like the voting age to be lowered to sixteen. I do not believe that one is mature enough to have a truly considered vote at such a low age as sixteen, but then there are those who never seem to be mature enough at any age to have a truly considered vote. You do need to experience life a little more to be able to exercise a considered vote.

Now one of the first things our grandson had to do, when he “came of age” at eighteen was try the poker machines at a club. This did not excite him and he found it boring? Good for him I say. There are many other ways to spend or invest your hard earned cash. On the same day that he tried the pokies, he bought his first beer and then went to a liquor store and bought a slab of beer. After a few weeks with his mates the buying of a slab of beer has reduced to perhaps a six pack every week or two. Moderation is much better, I believe, he has found. Save the money for car repairs, servicing, petrol and taking out his girl friend. We are trying to teach him life skills such as budgeting. These are things that they should learn fairly early.

I can recall when I was a similar age and could then go into a Pub. Yes I went with a mate or two and after a hard days work you can easily fall into the habit of going every night. Not that I ever did at least not every night. At the back of my mind was the hardship that my parents went through to buy their first home and to furnish it. Scrimping to buy the week's groceries etc. Sure I wasted money on things that were fashionable at the time and things that interested me and yes I still do like my little luxuries or treats every so often. I was also willing to cut back so as to be able to buy a home, a car, pay the mortgage etc. knowing full well that as things got better and easier there would still be opportunities to have more treats and luxuries.

Each job change in my grandson's life will create more chapters as he makes new friends and perhaps tries different career paths. That has certainly been so in my case. Since writing this column, I have been contacted by some from my past. One person sent me a note where he remembered me when I started with my very first employer at Auburn all those years ago. My grandson has many chapters in life ahead of him and he has certainly grown and matured over the past year. We have raised him as our own since he was eight years old and have watched him as he tried various sports and playing with his mates. I look at him now and remember him as a small boy in primary school. I can remember when I used to look up at my father when travelling on a bus and having to stand. My father could reach the straps hanging from the roof of the bus and I could only hang onto the handle on the seats, wishing that I was tall enough to reach the straps.

Just a few weeks ago my grandson was at school doing his HSC exams. One day he said to me that a mate of his told him about a job that was available, an apprenticeship. He also said that he had telephoned the company and they had invited him for an interview. He took himself off to the interview and came home a little later telling me he had got the job. I telephoned his grandmother (my wife) who was working at Newcastle at the time in our family business and told her. She was ecstatic. He has now finished his exams and is now working full time in the workforce as an apprentice. He still has a casual weekend job and has worked as a casual employee for a couple of years in the food industry.

I look at our grandson now and have to look up as he is now taller than me. What happened to the days when he would put on my shoes or slippers and they would be too big for him? Now his shoes are too big for me. But he still borrows some of my clothes as he maybe taller, but he is also slimmer than me.

He has yet to experience the buying of his first home, marrying the girl of his dreams and having children of his own. These are chapters that await him. Hopefully I also still have a number of chapters left before I reach that final chapter. I hope that some of those chapters yet to come for myself include enjoying great grandchildren.

There are no photographs with this particular column on this occasion.

The Mayor's Christmas Library Amnesty is Back

The Mayor's Christmas Library Amnesty is back in 2015 following last year's very generous response from Hills residents and Library members.

Hills Shire Mayor Dr Michelle Byrne said she was happy to bring the initiative back and was proud to partner with St Vincent de Paul in distributing food to families in need.

"From November 16, Council is willing to waive the late fees of all our library members, provided they return their book with a donation of non-perishable food for those in need," Mayor Byrne said.

"Last year's Library Amnesty brought out the generous side in our residents, as it wasn't just those with late fees who brought food in."

"Seeing residents spend more than the value of their late fee on donated food was also heartening."

Residents and library users have from Monday 16 November until Sunday December 13 to donate items and have their late fees waived.

"Last year more than 100 boxes of food were donated and I would love it if we could exceed that in 2015."

"Dig deep and get on board so we can pass them on to Vinnies and help make Christmas a more enjoyable time for families in need throughout Sydney."

Where: Any of the five Hills Shire Libraries at Castle Hill, Vinegar Hill, Dural, Carlingford and Baulkham Hills

When: Monday November 16 - Sunday December 13
